Mass Intentions		Our Lives are a Gift to Those Around Us
Monday, December 22nd		As our Advent preparations end and Christmas fast approaches, it is fitting that today's readings demonstrate the intensity of the Father's perfect and passionate love for each of us, culminating in the gift of His own Son, Jesus Christ, on Christmas Day. In response to such an overwhelming gift, what can we do except offer our lives as gift in return, embracing a stewardship way of life with all the love and strength we have to give? In our Gospel passage from Matthew, we find an unparalleled example of one who embraced this way of life in St. Joseph, as he obeys God's call to him through the message of an angel. We never hear St. Joseph speak, but the Scriptures tell us he was always listening, attentive to the leading of the Holy Spirit for his family. It was Joseph who found the stable where the baby Jesus would be born. No doubt it was Joseph who cleaned it up and prepared it for Mary and Jesus since we know that Mary was about to give birth. Joseph protected the family, guarded them, and tended to their safety, their comfort, and their well-being at the expense of his own plans and preferences. Though we do not hear any words from St. Joseph his actions clearly show that he offered himself, his whole life, as a gift to his family through his strong guidance, protection, and service. Let us imitate St. Joseph, then, as good stewards, giving our very lives to those around us in love and gratitude to God, who has given us everything we have, especially His own Son, Jesus Christ. -copyright: Catholic Stewardship Consultants, www.CatholicSteward.com

From the Desk of Father Justin

Happy Soon-To-Be-Christmas to you all! This is “it’s time to scramble” part of the holidays, eh? Well, last weekend I covered miracles for the 3rd Sunday of Advent, as a particular passion of mine. I had a few requests to offer the short version here, as many people couldn’t see my visual too well. As you can see at the top, it’s called the “Father Justin Hierarchical Pyramid of Miracles.” Here, I break up miracles into six categories. The top category is God at his most direct and the bottom is God at his least direct. The breakdown is as follows.

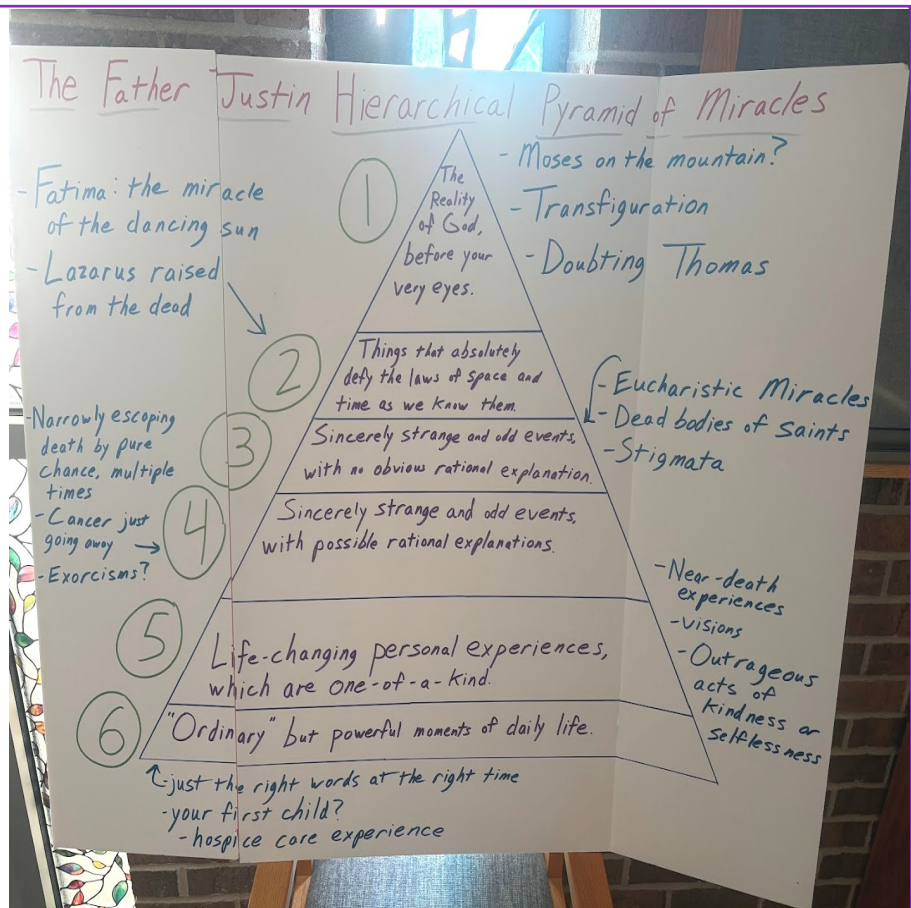

- Level one: God is directly before your very eyes in an undeniable way. This is what Moses experienced while alone on the top of the mountain before he came down with the 10 Commandments. It’s the Transfiguration, or when Jesus appeared before Thomas with holes in his hands and side. This is the reality of God before your very eyes.
- Level two: things that absolutely defy the laws of space and time as we know it and cause us to reevaluate our understanding of the universe: the perfect example is the miracle of Fatima where the sun danced in the sky. Ten thousand witnesses were there. The truly stubborn among them denied it has anything to do with God, which is what keeps it from being a level one miracle in my book.
- Level Three: things that are sincerely strange and odd, and lack any obvious rational explanation. The bread and wine of the Eucharist become literal flesh and blood for all to see. The dead bodies of saints do not decompose over decades or centuries. These are things unbelievers can ignore, to a degree, but they can’t explain with any kind of satisfying answer. When a simple communion wafer turns into a wet disc of bloody raw flesh, which later turns out to be from a human heart wall, there is no rational explanation for that. And skeptics have to say that it was a delusion, an intentional lie from a believer looking for attention, or it was somehow the work of a master illusionist.
- Level Four: Things that are sincerely strange and odd, but have a possible rational explanation. Some people have narrowly escaped death by pure chance in war... a dozen times over. Some people get terminal cancer or some incurable illness, which then disappears overnight without any medical explanation. Sure, maybe you were just really lucky, but I’ll bet that person looks at God in a new light...
- Level Five: Things that are lifechanging personal experiences: such as near-death experiences or powerful personal visions. I also count outrageous acts of kindness or selflessness. If someone literally gives you a kidney, freely and joyfully in your hour of need, would you at least try to give God another chance?
- Finally, we have level six: powerful ordinary moments in daily life. Just the right words said to you at just the right time by just the right person. I admit, that’s pretty weak as far as miracles go. But it counts. When life has got you on the ropes, and an unexpected friend gives you the spiritual boost that you desperately need, you’re probably going to remember that moment for the rest of your life as one of the good parts of life. And you will be grateful to that person all the rest of your days.

Miracles are God's wake-up calls to us – events that invite us closer to Him. Those can be big and grand and perhaps scientifically impossible. But they can also be subtle, quiet, personal, and folded nicely into ordinary daily life. In such a way, miracles really do happen every day, all around you. Keep your eyes open, and always strive to allow the Holy Spirit to move you one more step along the path of salvation.

Thank you for reading and see you on Christmas!

-Father Justin

Thanks to all the families that attended Breakfast with Jesus this year. We really enjoyed gathering together to celebrate the story of Jesus's birth. Thanks to all the volunteers that helped with the breakfast.

Also thanks to Father Justin for reading the Christmas story and our children, who did a wonderful job with the Christmas play!

Merry Christmas and may God's peace be with all of you.

Sincerely,
Audrey Szevs and Cathy Rakers

Our school children had a very busy week
gearing up for Christmas,
including the
all-school Christmas Concert and the annual SJS Craft Day!

This week's Advent prayer service at St. Joseph Catholic School was filled with remembering the stories of joy of the Advent. The Angel appearing to Mary and asking her to be the mother of our savior Jesus, Joseph's dream, Zachariah being told by God that he would become a father and John the Baptist telling people about the Savior that was coming. Although Advent is a time of quiet and waiting,
we remember that we are one week away from Jesus's joyous birth!

Dear Parishioners,

I write to you with heartfelt gratitude and joy for your incredible support of St. Joseph's Annual Christmas Cookie House. Your generosity and participation never cease to amaze me! This year, we raised $8,300 in sales, part of which will cover expenses, with the remainder funding several upcoming activities that our students and staff truly enjoy.

I also want to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make this event such a success:

- Preorders: Thank you to everyone who ordered trays and sourdough—we sold 98 cookie trays and 15 loaves of sourdough, totaling over 291 pounds of cookies!
- Family Contributions: Our SJS families shared their time and talents by contributing more than 365 dozen varieties of Christmas treats. The display was absolutely breathtaking!
- Volunteers: A huge thank-you to all who helped make, bake, and roll the 451 dozen cookies prepared by the committee for the sale. We truly could not do this without you.
- Staff Support: Thank you to the school and parish staff for your patience and encouragement throughout this process.

A special shout-out to the amazing ladies of the Cookie Court—Alex Hersey, Stephanie Monson, Sydney Monson, and Annie Olivares. You are truly remarkable!

Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and the happiest New Year!

Warm regards,
Rachel Blackwood

On a cold and clear
December night...

Thank you to all who were able to be present for Our Lady of Guadalupe
Candlelight Rosary
Service on Friday,
December 12th .

Our sincere thanks and appreciation to Tina Reyes ("Grandma Tina") and Rachel Blackwood for providing the beautiful artwork and colorful roses.

The artwork has an interesting background. It was hand carved/painted by a prisoner in Mexico
who dedicated the rest of his life to Christ and the Blessed Mother. Any money received for the pictures he made went back to the Church as penance for his sins.

What a wonderful inspiration for this Advent and Christmas Season!
