Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

The newsletter has been filled with all kinds of things from the Catechism of the Global Methodist Church, but it is time to lighten things up a bit, so I am going to share some comical things that are found in church bulletins. I hope some of these put a smile on your face!

The eighth graders will be presenting Shakespeare's Hamlet in the church basement on Friday at 7 p.m. The congregation is invited to attend this tragedy.

Don't let worry kill you off / let the church help.

Let us join David and Lisa in the celebration of their wedding and bring their happiness to a conclusion.

The rosebud on the altar this morning is to announce the birth of David Alan Belzer, the son of Reverend and Mrs. Julius Belzer.

Low Self-Esteem Support Group will meet Thursday at 7 to 8:30p.m. Please use the back door.

At the evening service tonight, the sermon topic will be "What is Hell?". Come early and listen to our choir practice.

Miss Charlene Mason sang "I will not pass this way again" giving obvious pleasure to the congregation.

Weight Watchers will meet at 7 p.m. Please use large double door at the side entrance.

The church will host an evening of fine dining, superb entertainment and gracious hospitality.

Twenty-two members were present at the church meeting held at the home of Mrs. Marsha Crutchfield last evening. Mrs. Crutchfield and Mrs. Rankin sang a duet, The Lord Knows Why.

Remember in prayer the many who are sick of our church and community.

Next Sunday Mrs. Vinson will be soloist for the morning service. The pastor will then speak on "It's a Terrible Experience."

Bertha Belch, a missionary from Africa, will be speaking tonight at Calvary Methodist. Come hear Bertha Belch all the way from Africa.

On a church bulletin during the minister's illness: GOD IS GOOD; Dr. Hargreaves is better.

Applications are now being accepted for 2-year-old nursery workers.

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Dave
