Discussion Questions

1. What do you think the parable of the Great Banquet is truly representative of in the overall scheme of the thing of the Kingdom of God?
2. How much are we like the people who were first invited to the Banquet; the ones who made excuses for not wanting to come to the great feast?
3. When people refused to come, it says in Luke 14:21, in anger the master of the house told the slaves to go out and invite others. Why did the Master get angry with those who would not come?
