Discussion Questions

1. Do you believe that miracles of healing happen in today's world. Why or why do you not believe they happen? Is the Holy Spirit still working like He did in the first century?
2. When was the last time you went to a hospital room or visited some in the care of hospice to gather around them, anoint them and pray for them?
3. Would it be appropriate to pray for healing for someone who is in their last moments of life in this world? If you think it wouldn't be appropriate, how should we pray for them?
