Welcome to St. Andrew's!

*We are so glad you have joined us today as we celebrate the greatest gift of all time:
Jesus coming into the world to be with us.
Incarnation matters:
God's presence in our midst; and yours with us.
Welcome, and blessings.*

This bulletin is your guide to our service.
Hymns can be found in the blue hymnal in the rack in front of you.
BCP pages refer to the red Book of Common Prayer, also in the rack.

3:00 PM Holy Eucharist, Rite II

Prelude

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

Reader: As the gospel of John says: The Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

Four candles on the Advent wreath are already lit. As the Christ candle is being lit, the following is said:

Reader: We light the Christ candle as a symbol of Christ the Light of the nations and the glory of Israel.

After the candle has been lit, the following is said:

Reader: God of light and life, as your Word became flesh and lived among us, so now let your Holy Spirit be reborn within us and prepare our hearts for the festive celebration of the coming Christmas season.

The people respond: O come, O Come Emmanuel. Amen.

Processional Hymn

O Come, all ye faithful

O come, all ye faithful, joyful and triumphant,
O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem;
come, and behold him, born the King of angels;

O come, let us adore him,
Christ the Lord.

Sing, choirs of angels, sing in exultation, sing, all ye citizens of heaven above;
glory to God, glory in the highest;

Refrain

Yea, Lord, we greet thee, born this happy morning;
Jesus, to thee be glory given;
Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing;

Refrain

The Word of God

Opening Acclamation

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn of Praise                      Angels we have heard on high

*Angels we have heard on high,
singing sweetly through the night,
and the mountains in reply
echoing their brave delight.
Gloria in excelsis Deo.*

Collect of the Day

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The Reading

Isaiah 9:2-7

<sup>2</sup>The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness— on them light has shined. <sup>3</sup>You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. <sup>4</sup>For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. <sup>5</sup>For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. <sup>6</sup>For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. <sup>7</sup>His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

- <sup>1</sup> Sing to the Lord a new song; *
sing to the Lord, all the whole earth.
- <sup>2</sup> Sing to the Lord and bless his Name; *
proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.
- <sup>3</sup> Declare his glory among the nations *
and his wonders among all peoples.
- <sup>6</sup> Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence! *
Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!
- <sup>7</sup> Ascribe to the Lord, you families of the peoples; *
ascribe to the Lord honor and power.
- <sup>8</sup> Ascribe to the Lord the honor due his Name; *
bring offerings and come into his courts.
- <sup>9</sup> Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness; *
let the whole earth tremble before him.
- <sup>10</sup> Tell it out among the nations: "The Lord is King! *
he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
he will judge the peoples with equity."
- <sup>11</sup> Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it; *
let the field be joyful and all that is therein.

Gradual Hymn

Joy to world!

Joy to the world! the Lord is come:
let earth receive her King;
let every heart prepare him room,
and heaven and nature sing.

Joy to the world! the Savior reigns;
let us our songs employ,
while fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains,
repeat the sounding joy.

Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

<sup>1</sup>In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. <sup>2</sup>This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. <sup>3</sup>All went to their own towns to be registered. <sup>4</sup>Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. <sup>5</sup>He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. <sup>6</sup>While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. <sup>7</sup>And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. <sup>8</sup>In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. <sup>9</sup>Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. <sup>10</sup>But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: <sup>11</sup>to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. <sup>12</sup>This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." <sup>13</sup>And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, <sup>14</sup>"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

Response: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Gradual Hymn

Joy to the world!

He rules the world with truth and grace, and makes the nations prove the glories of his righteousness, and wonders of his love.

Dramatic telling of the Christmas story

St. Andrew's Children

Carol

*Once in Royal David's city
Edward Fulcher, soloist*

*Once in royal David's city stood a lowly cattle shed, where a mother laid her baby in a manger for his bed:
Mary was that mother mild,
Jesus Christ her little child.*

This night is like no other night. It is a time to dream and sing our way to Bethlehem. The little town we seek sits on the hill country some ten miles south of Jerusalem. For thousands of years the households have gathered there on the hilltop like one family breaking bread. In the center of the village is a small inn. On this night it is overflowing with people seeking sleep and a place to eat. Behind the inn is a dark stable. A gray donkey chews his barley while a weary cow leans and rests after the day's plowing in the valley. All is still and quiet in the little town.

Carol

O little town of Bethlehem

O little town of Bethlehem, how still we see thee lie!
Above thy deep and dreamless sleep the silent stars go by;
yet in thy dark streets shineth the everlasting Light;
the hopes and fears of all the years are met in thee tonight.

As night gathers, the last two travelers come slowly up the road. There is a young woman about to be a mother. She is walking with her husband. They are Mary and Joseph from Nazareth! They have walked for six days to come to this city where King David was born, so long ago. They have come, like so many others, because the Roman emperor wants to count each one, so he can take their money as a tax. But it is late, and Mary is so weary. Where will they sleep? There is no room in the inn. They decide to sleep in the stable.

Carol

Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming

Lo, how a Rose e'er blooming, from tender stem hath sprung!
Of Jesse's lineage coming as seers of old have sung.
It came, a blossom bright, amid the cold of winter,
when half spent was the night.

Stars brighten slowly in the sky. All creation holds its breath. Suddenly, from the stable, comes the cry of a newborn child! Mary gently wraps the baby in a blanket and lays him in the feed box that his father has filled with straw. In the hills outside Bethlehem, shepherds watch their sheep. All at once, the dark is lost in light, and in the midst of the light is something even brighter: the faces of the angels. The fearful shepherds then hear music in the sky, and a voice cries, "Do not be afraid. Listen, I bring you news of great joy, a joy to be shared by all people. Today in the City of David a Savior is born! He is Christ the Lord." Then more angels appear, a whole heavenly host of them, praising God and singing, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, good will to all!" The shepherds run with joy across the fields to Bethlehem to the barn behind the inn. There they find the Holy Family and creep forward, overwhelmed with mystery, to find the Christ Child.

Carol

The first Nowell

The first Nowell, the angel did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay:
in fields as they lay, keeping their sheep,
on a cold winter's night that was so deep.
Nowell, Nowell! Nowell, Nowell!
Born is the King of Israel!

Three camels plod up the road. They have come from the East, far beyond the Arabian Desert, perhaps as far as the Caspian Sea. The camels carry three wise ones, the Magi. They are following the wild star, the destiny they had never seen before, and they are following it, wherever it goes, to find the King.

Carol

We three kings of Orient are

We three kings of Orient are, bearing gifts we traverse afar, field and fountain, moor and mountain, following yonder star.
O star of wonder, star of night, star with royal beauty bright;
westward leading, still proceeding, guide us to thy perfect light!

The magi's journey ends in a new king of kings. They fall to their knees and give him bright gold, sweet-smelling frankincense, and bitter myrrh, brought so far with so much love. So now we all come, following the star, to find God-with-us. We come, as people have come through the ages, to bring our own gifts to this Child, God's gift to us. Let the gifts of stars represent each of us as they are arrayed around the manger. Let them show us the way into the Mystery of Christmas, as we sing, and remember, and pray. May we, like the stars, rise and tell of the Good News, born on this shining night.

Please stand.

Carol

Go tell it on the mountain

Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born!
Down in a lowly manger the humble Christ was born,
and God sent us salvation that blessed Christmas morn.
Go tell it on the mountain, over the hills and everywhere;
go tell it on the mountain, that Jesus Christ is born!

Following the pageant, the children remain for the Children's Moment.

Bidding the Prayers

Prayers of the People

Leader: Lord Jesus, we gather here this night to celebrate your birthday.

People: We pray for all who celebrate your birth, for Christians of all ages and sizes, races and colors.

Leader: Into a time of political turmoil, you came as the Prince of Peace.

People: In your name, we pray for the leaders of all countries, that they may work together for peace.

Leader: Savior, Messiah, and Lord, your birth is good news of great joy for all people.

People: Trusting in your love for them, we pray for all of the people of this world.

Leader: Your family was poor, and there was no room for you in the inn.

People: In your name, we pray for all who are poor, all who have nowhere to live, and all who suffer.

Leader: You came to bring us everlasting life.

People: We pray for all who have died, especially those in whose memory our Christmas flowers are given.

Leader: With Mary and Joseph, the shepherds and the angels, we praise you and we thank you, loving God.

People: Glory to God in the highest heaven. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The Holy Communion

Offertory

The Snow Lay On the Ground, arr. Vicki Hancock Wright
Children's Choir

*The snow lay on the ground,
the stars shone bright
when Christ our Lord was born on Christmas night.
Venite adoremus Dominum
Venite adoremus Dominum*

*'Twas gentle Mary maid,
so young and strong,
who welcomed here the Christ Child with a song.
She laid him in a stall at Bethlehem.
The cow and oxen shared the roof with them.*

*Venite adoremus Dominum
Venite adoremus Dominum*

*Saint Joseph, too, was there
To tend the child,
To guard him and protect his mother mild.
The angels hovered 'round and sang this song:
Venite adoremus Dominum*

Dominum. Dominum.

The Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.
Praise God all creatures here below!
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Praise him above ye heav'nly host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Alleluia, Alleluia! Alleluia.

The Great Thanksgiving: Prayer B

Book of Common Prayer, p. 367

Sanctus & Benedictus

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

The Lord's Prayer

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

All: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Administration of Communion

A Word about Holy Communion

We invite all who wish to follow Jesus to be baptized, and we invite all baptized Christians to receive the gifts of Jesus' Body and Blood. All are welcome at the altar rail: the baptized for communion, everyone for a blessing.

- To receive the common cup or just the wafer, come to the lectern side of the altar rail.
- If you would rather not drink out of the common cup, come to the pulpit side of the altar, where the clergy person will dip your wafer in the wine.

Gluten-free wafers are available. Just let clergy know that you need one.

In lieu of communion, you may receive a blessing at any station.

Candles for Silent Night

- On your way back from communion, please pick up a candle for the singing of Silent Night.
- Battery-operated candles are available for young children. Parents, please wait to turn on the children's candles until the other candles in your pew have been lit. Turn on the light by twisting the "flame".

Postcommunion Prayer

Celebrant: Let us pray.

All: Eternal God, heavenly Father, you have graciously accepted us as living members of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ, and you have fed us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of his Body and Blood. Send us now into the world in peace, and grant us strength and courage to love and serve you with gladness and singleness of heart; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Hymn

Silent Night

Silent night, holy night, all is calm, all is bright round yon virgin mother and child.
Holy infant, so tender and mild,
sleep in heavenly peace.

The Christmas Blessing

Hark! the herald angels sing
glory to the newborn King!
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled!
Joyful, all ye nations, rise,
join the triumph of the skies;
with the angelic host proclaim Christ is born in Bethlehem!

Hark! the herald angels sing
glory to the newborn King!

Mild he lays his glory by,
born that we no more may die,
born to raise us from the earth,
born to give us second birth.
Risen with healing in his wings,
light and life to all he brings,
hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace!

Refrain

Dismissal

Response: Thanks be to God.

Postlude

If you would rather not keep your candle (or if you have an electric candle), please drop it in the basket before leaving.

We are so thankful to have you worshipping with us this Christmas Eve!

We would like to extend a special welcome to children and their caregivers. At St. Andrew's we know the sounds of dropped crayons, the rustling of angel wings, and little whispers are the sounds of a church full of life. Church is not a silent building; church is the people! Your presence is a blessing to us.

The Rev. Anne R. Kirchmier, Rector

Ginny Chilton, Supervisor of Children's & Youth Ministries and Minister of Music

As 2025 draws to a close we're giving thanks for the continued growth of our children's and youth ministries. We humbly invite you to join us in 2026, to experience the joy and peace of Jesus year-round. Merry Christmas and blessings on your New Year!

Upcoming Worship Services

December 25—Christmas Day

10:30 AM Holy Eucharist

December 28—The First Sunday after Christmas

10:30 AM Lessons & Carols with Holy Eucharist

(no 8 AM service this Sunday)

Young Adult dinner on Dec. 27

Take a break from turkey and egg nog! Young adults are invited to join us for dinner at Si Senor Mexican Restaurant on Saturday, Dec. 27, at 6 PM. Dinner is free! Bring a friend! If you plan to join us, please RSVP to Anne (text 804-687-5396 or email rector@standrews-episcopal.org).

Children's Chapel

September through June, Children's Chapel provides Sunday morning formation for children from age 4 through fifth grade at the 10:30 AM service. The children engage with the Bible through stories, lessons and activities. During the summer months, an altered/shorter Children's Chapel offering is provided. To learn more, contact Ginny Chilton at 757-595-0371, ext. 1004 or music.minister@standrews-episcopal.org.

No Children's Chapel on Dec. 28

There will be no Children's Chapel on Sunday, Dec. 28. Children are happily welcomed in worship every Sunday, and Dec. 28 will be our annual Lessons & Carols for Christmas, with lots of favorite holiday carols. Also, there are activity bags in the back of the church as well as a wide selection of books to borrow.

Tween and Youth Ministry

Children in 5th through 8th grade have their own formation time once a month and also schedule service projects and social gatherings throughout the year.

Acolytes

Training for new acolytes will be offered in January. Please contact Bill Wilds for more information (757-880-5460 or wwilds11846@verizon.net)

Mark your calendar: Ash Wednesday for Children

We invite your family to join us for one of our Ash Wednesday for Children services on February 18 at 9 AM and 4 PM.

Church office holiday closure

Please note that the church office will be closed December 25 through January 1. We will return to normal office hours on Monday, January 5 (office hours are 9 AM to noon Mon & Tue, 9 AM to 3 PM Wed & Thur).
