

Music before the Service

Walk in Light, by Karen Marroli

*And we shall study war no more.
Come, O people,
O come and walk in the light of the Lord.
And we shall walk the paths of peace.
Come, O people,
O come and walk in the light of the Lord.*

*The night is far spent; the day is at hand.
So let us cast off the works of night.*

*So we may wear a Shield of Day.
Come, O people,
O come and walk in the light of the Lord.
Evermore and evermore.*

*And we shall walk in paths of peace.
Come, O people,
O come and walk in the light of the Lord.
Evermore and evermore*

Jesus Christ the Apple Tree, by Malcolm Archer

*The tree of life my soul hath seen, laden with fruit and always green:
the trees of nature fruitless be, compared with Christ the apple tree.*

*His beauty doth all things excel:
by faith I know, but ne'er can tell the glory which I now can see in Jesus Christ the apple tree.*

For happiness I long have sought, and pleasure dearly I have bought:

*I missed of all; but now I see
'tis found in Christ the apple tree.*

*I'm weary with my former toil.
Here I will sit and rest awhile.
Under the shadow I will be of Jesus Christ the apple tree.*

*This fruit doth make my soul to thrive,
it keeps my dying faith alive;
which makes my soul in haste to be with Jesus Christ the apple tree.*

Annunciation and Magnificat, by Marty Haugen

Lindsey Nicolai and Becky Fulcher, soloists

*An angel went from God to a town called Nazareth to a woman whose name was Mary.
The angel said to her,
"Rejoice, O highly favored, for God is with you.
"You shall bear a child,
and his name shall be Jesus,
the Chosen One of God Most High."
And Mary said, "I am the servant of my God, I live to do your will."*

*My soul proclaims your greatness, O God,
and my spirit rejoices in you.
You have looked with love on your servant here,
and blessed me all my life through.
Great and mighty are you, O Holy One, strong is your kindness evermore.
How you favor the weak and lowly one, humbling the proud of heart!*

*You have cast the mighty down from their thrones, and uplifted the humble of heart.
You have filled the hungry with wondrous things, and left the wealthy no part.
Great and mighty are you, O Faithful One, strong is your justice, strong your love,
as you promised to Sarah and Abraham, kindness forever more.*

*My soul proclaims your greatness, O God,
and my spirit rejoices in you.
You have looked with love on your servant here,
and blessed me all my life through*

Hymn: 101, Away in a manger

Congregation, remain seated and please join the choir in singing.

On a Winter's Night, arr. Douglas E. Wagner

Jeffery Lilliston, saxophone

*At Bethlehem, on a winter's night, above a humble stall,
the moon shone bright with celestial light,
and peace enveloped all.
Then from the sky sweet music came,
as flights of angels did proclaim:
"Born this day is Christ the King!"
Praises we sing: "Christus natus hodie."*

*The watchful shepherds heard the news above their bleating sheep, and left to find this Blessed One,
who in a manger sleeps.*

*So as they journeyed o'er the plains, glad music filled the sky again:
"Born this day is Christ the King!"
Praises we sing: "Christus natus hodie."*

*Creation fell on bended knee to worship at his side.
This Child, by His nativity has come to bring new life.
Now Christians, sing in unity these holy words, this blest decree:
"Born this Day is Christ the King!"
Praises we sing: "Christus natus hodie."*

All on this holy night.

And they shall protect thee, by Peter Nardone

The Women of the Adult Choir
Hunter Williams, conducting

*And they shall protect thee, and guard thee, and guide thee,
for they are the angels of Heav'n.
They shall follow and comfort thee when danger is near,
for their charge over thee thy God has giv'n.*

*When thou art in fear, know that they are near,
at wake or at rest be assured
God to us has giv'n a gift from his heav'n, for angels thy safety have secured.*

Amen, amen, amen, amen.

Christmas Lullaby, by John Rutter

*Clear in the darkness
a light shines in Bethlehem:
Angels are singing, their sound fills the air.
Wise men have journeyed to greet their Messiah;
but only a mother and baby lie there.*

*'Ave Maria, ave Maria':
Hear the soft lullaby the angel hosts sing.
'Ave Maria, ave Maria':
Maiden, and mother of Jesus our King.*

*Where are his courtiers,
and who are his people?
Why does he bear neither sceptre nor crown?
Shepherds his courtiers, the poor for his people,
With peace as his sceptre and love for his crown.*

*What though your treasures are not gold or incense?
Lay them before him with hearts full of love.
Praise to the Christ child,
and praise to his mother Who bore us a Savior by grace from above.*

Welcome to St. Andrew's!

*We are so glad you have joined us today as we celebrate the greatest gift of all time:
Jesus coming into the world to be with us.
Incarnation matters:
God's presence in our midst; and yours with us.
Welcome, and blessings.*

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

Reader: In the beginning was the Word, and the word was with God, and the Word was God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it. And the Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth.

Four candles on the Advent wreath are already lit. As the Christ candle is being lit, the following is said:

Reader: We light the Christ candle as a symbol of Christ the Light of the nations and the glory of Israel.

After the candle has been lit, the following is said:

Reader: God of light and life, as your Word became flesh and lived among us, so now let your Holy Spirit be reborn within us and prepare our hearts for the festive celebration of the coming Christmas season.

The people respond: O come, O Come Emmanuel. Amen.

The Word of God

Opening Acclamation and Collect for Purity

Celebrant: Blessed be God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit.

People: And blessed be his kingdom, now and for ever. Amen.

Almighty God, to you all hearts are open, all desires known, and from you no secrets are hid: Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love you, and worthily magnify your holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Angels we have heard on high, singing sweetly through the night, and the mountains in reply echoing their brave delight.

Gloria in excelsis Deo.

Collect of the Day

O God, you have caused this holy night to shine with the brightness of the true Light: Grant that we, who have known the mystery of that Light on earth, may also enjoy him perfectly in heaven; where with you and the Holy Spirit he lives and reigns, one God, in glory everlasting. Amen.

The First Reading

Isaiah 9:2-7

²The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light; those who lived in a land of deep darkness— on them light has shined. ³You have multiplied the nation, you have increased its joy; they rejoice before you as with joy at the harvest, as people exult when dividing plunder. ⁴For the yoke of their burden, and the bar across their shoulders, the rod of their oppressor, you have broken as on the day of Midian. ⁵For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire. ⁶For a child has been born for us, a son given to us; authority rests upon his shoulders; and he is named Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. ⁷His authority shall grow continually, and there shall be endless peace for the throne of David and his kingdom. He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will do this.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Psalm

Psalm 97

¹The Lord is King; let the earth rejoice; *
let the multitude of the isles be glad.

²Clouds and darkness are round about him, * righteousness and justice are the foundations of his throne.

³A fire goes before him * and burns up his enemies on every side.

⁴ His lightnings light up the world; *
the earth sees it and is afraid.

⁵ The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the Lord, *
at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

⁶ The heavens declare his righteousness, * and all the peoples see his glory.

⁷ Confounded be all who worship carved images and delight in false gods! *
Bow down before him, all you gods.

⁸ Zion hears and is glad, and the cities of Judah rejoice, * because of your judgments, O Lord.

⁹ For you are the Lord, most high over all the earth; *
you are exalted far above all gods.

¹⁰ The Lord loves those who hate evil; *
he preserves the lives of his saints and delivers them from the hand of the wicked.

¹¹ Light has sprung up for the righteous, * and joyful gladness for those who are truehearted.

¹² Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous, * and give thanks to his holy Name.

The Second Reading

Titus 3:4-7

⁴ But when the goodness and loving kindness of God our Savior appeared, ⁵ he saved us, not because of any works of righteousness that we had done, but according to his mercy, through the water of rebirth and renewal by the Holy Spirit. ⁶ This Spirit he poured out on us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior, ⁷ so that, having been justified by his grace, we might become heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

The Gospel

Luke 2:1-20

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

Response: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

¹ In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. ²This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³All went to their own towns to be registered. ⁴Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. ⁵He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. ⁶While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. ⁷And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn. ⁸In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. ⁹Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. ¹⁰But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see—I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: ¹¹to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹²This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." ¹³And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying, ¹⁴"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!" ¹⁵When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." ¹⁶So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. ¹⁷When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; ¹⁸and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. ²⁰The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

The Sermon

The Rev. Marc Vance

Bidding the Prayers

Prayers of the People

Leader: Holy God, you chose to come into our world as a helpless infant. Remind us that you are with us still. May your Church in this place and throughout the world reflect your presence in our midst.

People: Child born unto us, be with us, and help us to be with you.

Leader: Gentle Jesus, you came to be a light for people of every tribe and language and nation. Shed your light on our troubled world that we may see each other as brothers and sisters, beloved children of the God who gave us the greatest gift of all.

People: Son given unto all of us, teach us to be one family.

Leader: Babe of Bethlehem, there was no room for you in the inn. Be with those in our world who find that there is no room for them, especially orphans and refugees and all who are displaced.

People: Wonderful Counselor, show us how to make room in the inns of our hearts.

Leader: Son of Mary, you came into a specific human community at a particular time in history. We who gather here come as part of this faith community, and we bring with us our hopes and fears, our dreams and yearnings.

People: Mighty God, strengthen us to do your will in this time and place.

Leader: King of kings and Lord of lords, in your earthly life you went from humble beginnings to a humiliating end. You had all power and you showed all humility. For our sake, you joined our suffering.

People: Everlasting Father, Comforter of all who suffer, create in us the compassion that lasts throughout eternity.

Leader: God incarnate, man divine, you entered life in order to die so that at our deaths, we might live. Be with all who have died, especially those in whose memory our Christmas flowers are given.

People: Prince of peace, in your kingdom that is coming – the peaceable kingdom of now and not yet – gather all people together. Amen.

The Peace

Celebrant: The peace of the Lord be always with you.

People: And also with you.

The Holy Communion

Offertory Anthem

Mid-Winter, by Bob Chilcott

*In the bleak midwinter frosty wind made moan, earth stood hard as iron, water like a stone;
snow had fallen, snow on snow,
in the bleak midwinter, long ago.*

*Our God heav'n cannot hold him,
nor earth sustain:
Heav'n and earth shall flee away
when he comes to reign.
In the bleak midwinter a stableplace sufficed
the Lord God Almighty, Jesus Christ.*

*Angels and archangels may have gathered there.
Cherubim and seraphim thronged the air;
But only his mother in her maiden bliss
Worshipped the beloved with a kiss.*

*What can I give him, poor as I am?
If I were a shepherd, I would bring a lamb;
If I were a wise man I would do my part.
Yet what I can I give him, give my heart.*

The Doxology

Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

Praise God all creatures here below!

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Praise him above ye heav'nly host:

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Alleluia, Alleluia!

Alleluia, Alleluia! Alleluia.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

The Lord's Prayer

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

All: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Administration of Communion

A Word about Holy Communion

We invite all who wish to follow Jesus to be baptized, and we invite all baptized Christians to receive the gifts of Jesus' Body and Blood. All are welcome at the altar rail: the baptized for communion, everyone for a blessing.

- To receive the common cup or just the wafer, come to the lectern side of the altar rail.
- If you would rather not drink out of the common cup, come to the pulpit side of the altar, where the clergy person will dip your wafer in the wine.

Gluten-free wafers are available. Just let clergy know that you need one.

In lieu of communion, you may receive a blessing at any station.

Candles for Silent Night

- On your way back from communion, please pick up a candle for the singing of Silent Night.
- Battery-operated candles are available for young children. Parents, please wait to turn on the children's candles until the other candles in your pew have been lit. Turn on the light by twisting the "flame".

“I salute you. There is nothing I can give you which you have not, but there is much that what I cannot give, you can take. No heaven can come to us unless our hearts find rest in it today. Take heaven. No peace lies in the future which is not hidden in this present instant. Take peace. The bloom of the world is but a shadow. Behind it, yet within our reach, is joy. Take joy. And so, at this Christmas time, I greet you with the prayer that, for you, now and forever, the day breaks and the shadows flee away.”
