A Note From Our Pastor

Question: Where does the money go that is collected each week at Church?

Answer: This is a good question! Every parish has financial obligations, including the basic operation of the buildings, salaries, maintenance, and improvements. In addition, there are schools to support, programs to run, charities to be funded, and operational expenses like hosts and wine for Mass, music books, vestments, and so on. In some cases, cemeteries and other buildings need attention. Finally, there is the diocesan assessment that each parish pays to help run the diocese and the support services provided to each parish.

Most parishes manage to get by with the collection, a few fundraisers and endowments. But contrary to popular opinion, cash flow is also a problem, and many parishes operate in the red. The Finance Committee is responsible for assisting the pastor in fiscal management, and good stewardship is the basis for successful programs. ©LPi

Peace and all good things,

Father Dindo

Day Chapel – St Jude Church
241 W Second Ave., New Lenox

Human Sex Trafficking is an underreported problem. The U.S. Department of State estimates the number at 27 million victims worldwide. Recognizing that perpetrators of this crime often find new tactics, methods and means to exploit individuals, there is still much unknown about the crime. Awareness is key!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

Lately I've been enjoying the deep meaning of Eastern icons. I love how they express a tapestry of meaning in a way that can surpass the written or spoken word. Today's parable of the ten virgins from Jesus is a good example. Try googling "wise and foolish virgins icon" and you'll see an image of how our Christ meets our heart's deepest needs if we attend to him with the proper attitude.

I'm serious. Take a moment to google and look at it. See how it depicts the risen Jesus behind a closed door with the five wise virgins with lighted lamps. He gazes with them toward the five foolish and lamp-less virgins, symbolizing the outward looking of divine love for the lost. Moreover, the wedding feast is no ordinary one. It takes place in a walled city and garden, indicating it's a new Jerusalem and a return to Eden. The table isn't typical, either. It's a Eucharistic feast. Now we see that the door in Jesus' parable is the way into the church, where Christ is the new light burning amidst the dark midnight of this world.

The richness continues. We notice, too, that the foolish virgins look exactly the same as the wise ones in their clothes, hair, and expressions. The only difference is they departed to buy oil and now they are sadly excluded. We often act like consumers in the marketplace to fulfill our need for love and mercy. We'll always end up disappointed if we shop around. Jesus sums up the moral of the story this way: "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour." Watch, remain, don't spiritually shop. It is always better to quietly remain close to the Eucharistic community of the Church, even if we feel like our oil has run out. This week let's consider placing the icon of the wise and foolish virgins on our phone lock screen or computer desktop to help us remember to stay close to him, especially when life feels dark. — Father John Muir

Spiritual Adoption Update

Your baby is quite active in the womb now, although Mother won't feel it for another couple of months. If the mother's womb had a window, you could watch your spiritually adopted baby squint, swallow and move his or her tongue. Baby can make a tight fist if you touch him or her. Baby is breathing fluid which continues until birth.

Baby obtains the oxygen his or her body needs through the umbilical cord. The baby you are praying for weighs one ounce.

Please continue to pray for me!

HELPING HANDS

The Knights of Columbus have formed a sub-committee called Helping Hands which is offering our services to any parishioner who is in need of minor repairs around their home and is unable to perform these tasks due to financial hardships or not having able bodied family members available. The resident may be responsible for any material costs, but the Knights would provide the labor.

There is a screening process to make sure it is something our members can handle and the work qualifies. Anyone wishing to apply should contact Donna Hungerford, Christian Service Director (708) 326-9312 to schedule a visit from one of our members. If you are interested in joining this committee, email
Rich Neubauer neuric01@hotmail.com

The Young at Heart held their annual Pumpkin Decorating Contest and here are this year's winners!

Ann Norkus, Toni Berlongieri and Pat Bric.

Thanks to all who participated!

Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.
