THE SOLEMNITY OF THE Immaculate Conception OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

(Monday, December 8th)

IS a Holy Day of Obligation, despite being a Monday.

There is an obligation to attend Mass on Sunday (12/7) AND the Solemnity (12/8).

Mass schedule	7:30 a.m.
on 12/8:	12:00 p.m.
	7:00 p.m.

Confessions will be cancelled Monday morning (12/8) in light of this.

Congratulations to the Gillentine family on the baptism of their daughter Callie James

THERE ARE TWO MARIAN CELEBRATIONS THIS WEEK!

This celebration is a Solemnity and a Holy Day of Obligation. This Solemnity recognizes that the Blessed Virgin Mary was conceived without original sin.

Immaculate Conception
DECEMBER 8TH

ORIGINAL SIN IS A STATE OF BEING, WHICH WE INHERIT FROM OUR FIRST PARENTS, ADAM AND EVE. THE CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH STATES THAT ORIGINAL SIN IS “A DEPRIVATION OF ORIGINAL HOLINESS AND JUSTICE” AND THAT HUMAN NATURE IS “INCLINED TO SIN” BECAUSE OF IT. (CCC 405).

Being all-knowing, God knew that the Blessed Virgin Mary would use say “yes” to becoming the Mother of His Son. He thus ensured that her nature was never tainted by original sin, so that she would be perfect in all ways for our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Our Lady of Guadalupe

DECEMBER 12TH

This celebration is a Feast Day and not a Holy Day of Obligation. This Feast celebrates the apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary as Our Lady of Guadalupe to St. Juan Diego in Mexico.

A SOLEMNITY IS A CELEBRATION THAT USUALLY COMMEMORATES THE MOST IMPORTANT MYSTERIES OF OUR FAITH. IT IS THE HIGHEST FORM OF COMMEMORATION POSSIBLE. MANY SOLEMNITIES ARE HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION.

A FEAST IS THE SECOND-HIGHEST FORM OF CELEBRATION. THEY HELP US TO REMEMBER OTHER PARTS OF FAITH, SUCH AS SAINTS’ LIVES OR TITLES OF OUR LORD OR BLESSED MOTHER. FEAST DAYS ARE NEVER HOLY DAYS OF OBLIGATION.

Our Lady of Guadalupe was declared Patroness of the Americas, since she honored the native people of Mexico by appearing in their traditional garments.

Join us in honoring our Blessed Mother by attending Mass not only on Monday for her Holy Day of Obligation, but for the 8:00 a.m. Mass on Friday, December 12th, as well.

From Your Pastor

My dearest parishioners,

I greet you with love and peace in the name of Jesus!

Fr. Welbert and I just got back from a five-day retreat, and before things get busy again, I wanted to share a few thoughts with you. The retreat was a chance to slow down, pray, recharge, and connect with the Lord in a deeper way. It also gave me time to reflect on the past five months since I became your pastor, and I'm honestly amazed at how much God's grace has carried us through. At the same time, it reminded me that none of this would be possible without your love, support, and encouragement. Thank you for all the ways you've welcomed me not just since I became pastor, but from the very first day I arrived in this parish. Over the past few months, so many of you have gone out of your way: inviting Fr. Welbert and me into your homes, sharing meals with us, asking us to bless your houses, and even bringing us food every week. I'm still in awe of your generosity and thoughtfulness. We feel truly cared for, and I can't fully express how grateful I am.

Stepping into this role has been exciting, but also a bit overwhelming at times. There have been moments when the responsibilities felt heavy. But knowing I have your prayers, patience, and encouragement, and that you are walking alongside me as I continue to learn and grow makes a huge difference. During the retreat, I was reminded just how much I rely on God's grace, how much I still have to learn, and how blessed I am to serve here with all of you. I came back feeling renewed, at peace, and full of gratitude.

As we move forward, Fr. Welbert and I would be so grateful if you continue to keep us in your prayers. We really need them. Pray that we may grow as priests and shepherds who reflect the heart of Jesus: gentle, faithful, and compassionate. Thank you and God bless you all.

Send, O Lord, Holy Apostles into Your Church!

With love in Christ,

Fr. Joe Gasta, RCJ
Pastor

MAKE

A Pastoral Letter for the People of the Diocese of Joliet

In his first pastoral letter “Make,” Bishop Ronald Hicks encourages all of us to embrace the calling to make disciples. This means that we are meant to transform people into followers of Christ – people who know, love, and serve Him. But we must first make sure that we are followers of Christ, so that we are able to share Him with others.

How are we meant to do this? Bishop Hicks provides us with five simple ways:

- 1) Conversion: Bishop Hicks explains that Conversion is a particular moment “when you realize that God is real and not just a theory.” He goes on to explain that it is possible to go through the motions of faith, but not really believe. Conversion is a change of mind and heart, where we truly believe in Christ and are intentional about following Him.
- 2) Confession: The Sacrament of Confession is God’s way of bringing us back to Him. Bishop Hicks explains that all of us fall into sin, but Christ’s Death and Resurrection overpowered the effects of sin. By going to Confession, we are able to receive Christ’s grace and “live freely as beloved children of God.”
- 3) Communion: The Eucharist (Holy Communion) is the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of Christ. By receiving the Eucharist, we are, quite literally, able to unite ourselves with Christ Himself, and “we receive the grace and power to go on mission as [Christ’s] disciple-makers.”
- 4) Commission: At the end of Mass, we “are sent forth to bring the fruits of the Eucharist to the world.” More than just saying that the Mass is over, we are called to live our lives and to do good works in Christ’s name wherever we are.
- 5) Prayer: This is our way of communicating with God. It is more than a chore to check off of a list. It is “the heartbeat of our whole journey to live in union with Jesus.”

With Prayer as the unifying bond, Conversion, Confession, Communion, and Commission become a cycle to follow, which motivates us to preach the Gospel and “to shine the light of the Gospel for all to see.” Bishop Hicks writes that we do not need to travel far to do this – that we can share the Gospel with people in our own families, workplaces, and local communities, and, in doing so, make disciples.

In order to do this and make others into disciples, however, we must first make ourselves into disciples. Make time for God – for prayer, for Mass, for the Eucharist. When we make our world centered on God, it becomes easier to live as examples for others to follow. We then can make disciples by “being on fire with love for Jesus,” and by sharing that love with others in all that we do.

We encourage you to download and read the entirety of Bishop Hick’s new pastoral letter, MAKE, to discover how to live as a disciple and help make other disciples in your community.
