MY DEAREST PARISHIONERS,

I greet you with love and peace in the name of Jesus!

In the last few weeks, we have been looking at the different parts of the Mass. We have seen how we gather together, listen to God's Word, bring our gifts and ourselves to the altar, and enter into the Eucharistic Prayer. Now we come to Holy Communion. After the Eucharistic Prayer, we pray the Our Father. We ask God for what we need and ask Him to forgive us as we forgive others. Then we offer one another a sign of peace. These prayers and actions prepare us to receive Holy Communion.

When we come forward for Holy Communion, we receive not ordinary bread, but Jesus Christ, truly present in the Eucharist under the appearance of bread. This is one of the greatest gifts God gives us. The Eucharist is the gift of Christ Himself. Jesus gives Himself to us because He loves us and wants to be close to us. When we receive Holy Communion, we are united more deeply with Him, which is why we should prepare ourselves well before receiving Communion. We should try to be attentive and aware of what we are about to receive, coming forward with faith and humility, remembering that we are receiving the Lord.

The Church also asks us to examine our lives before receiving Holy Communion. If we are conscious of having committed a mortal sin, we should first receive the sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving Communion. This is not meant to keep us away from Jesus. Rather, it reminds us of the importance of being properly prepared to receive Him. When the minister says: The Body of Christ, we respond: Amen. That Amen is more than simply a response. It is an expression of our faith. We are saying: Yes, I believe. I believe that this is truly Christ. After receiving Communion, we return to our place and spend some quiet time with the Lord. We can thank Him, speak to Him about what is happening in our lives, or simply remain in His presence.

The next time you receive Holy Communion, try not to rush. Take a moment to remember whom you are receiving. Jesus comes to us. Let us receive Him with faith, gratitude, and an open heart. May our Communion with Christ help us to become more like Him in the way we live and in the way we treat one another, strengthening our love for God and our charity toward our neighbors.

Send O Lord, Holy Apostles into Your Church!

With love in Christ,

Fr. Joe Gasta, RCJ
Pastor

St. Mary Parish Mokena, St. Monica's Mission,

Bringing Loved Ones Back Home To The Catholic Church

The next Monica's Mission meeting will be held on Thursday, November 12th

in the church side chapel for Adoration to the Blessed Sacrament. We will pray the St. Monica Rosary at 6:30 p.m. followed by fellowship in the Church Hall.

- Bring a friend who is going through the challenge of having a loved one no longer practicing the faith and away from the Church.
- Please add the names of loved ones who have left the Catholic Church in the petition book located in the narthex. We pray for these names at special masses and Adoration Holy Hours.

Trust God's Timing

The Lord works on His time, not ours. Even if progress is slow, keep praying, living your faith, and leaving the door open.

Practical takeaway:

- Pray daily for their conversion.
- Share your faith in everyday moments, not just in formal talks.
- Listen more than you speak.
- Be a witness through your actions, not just your words.
- Trust God's grace to draw them home.

Dwell In The Presence of God

Sat. Nov. 14 ~ 9 am

Join St. Mary's Sisters In Christ for their Fall meeting in the Church Hall following the 8am Mass. After a hot breakfast and scripture reflection, Fr. Joe will speak about discerning God's Will. There is no cost: donations accepted to cover cost of food.

We're saving a seat for you
