FROM YOUR PASTOR

My dearest parishioners,

I greet you with love and peace in the name of Jesus.

As I begin this new chapter with you as your pastor, my heart is full. I am feeling a mix of emotions: thankful, hopeful, and yes, a little nervous too. Change can bring a lot of questions. I know I've got some of my own. And I want to be honest with you right from the beginning: I don't have all the answers. I will not always get everything right. But here's what I know: God is good. He is trustworthy. And He is already at work in our lives, even when we cannot quite see what's before us.

Like many of you, I carry some fears. I wonder if I will be who you need me to be. I wonder what this next chapter will look like. But I take comfort in knowing that we do not walk this road alone. God goes before us, and He walks beside us. And He invites us to follow Him together.

So let us take that step of faith, side by side. Let us be kind to one another. Let's be quick to listen, ready to forgive, and eager to grow in love. Let us give each other grace just like God gives it to us each and every day.

Lastly, thank you for opening your hearts to me and Fr. Joel, and for letting us be a part of your lives. I am deeply grateful, and I look forward to the journey that lies ahead with all of you.

With love in Christ,
Fr. Joe Gasta
Pastor

Stewardship

In today's Gospel passage, from Luke, we read the well-known parable of the Good Samaritan. Here, Jesus teaches us in rich detail what stewardship in action looks like. In fact, this parable could just as accurately be called the parable of the Good Steward.

The first thing we note about the Good Samaritan is that he is aware of the needs of those around him and responds generously. While the priest and Levi brush right past the man on the side of the road, the Samaritan is watching for those who might be in need. He has a hospitable way of looking at the world around him and so he is able to "see" in a way that the others did not, and he was "moved with compassion at the sight" of the man.

Next, we see the Good Samaritan spring into action to serve this man, setting aside his own schedule and plans to meet his needs. He does not just give the man a few dollars or offer quick words of encouragement from across the road. He goes right up to the man. He cleans and bandages his wounds. He puts the man on his own animal and brings him to an inn where he can heal. He ensures the innkeeper would continue to look after him, and he commits to re-turning to the man on his way back.

That is how we live out God's commandments. That is true hospitality and service. That is how a good steward springs into action when he comes upon a neighbor in need. And Jesus says to each of us personally, just as He did in today's Gospel, "Go and do likewise."

ST. MARY MISSION APPEAL

Fr. Bormate from the Philippines is coming
July 19-20 to all Masses!

Fr. Bormate is coming to St. Mary's Parish!

He is a priest in the Diocese of Borongan, Eastern Samar, Philippines. This Diocese is located on the far eastern coast of the Philippines where typhoons frequently visit causing massive destruction to homes and terrible loss of lives. The main livelihood of the locals are coconut and rice farming or fishing. Often their livelihoods are wiped out after typhoons leaving families without a way to put food on their tables or send their children to school.

In 2013, Supertyphoon Haiyan hit this area. Many lives were lost and total areas devastated! With the grace of God and the generosity of others, they are gradually recovering, even 12 years later.

Fr. Bormate will be speaking about an effort of the Borongan Diocese to help children from poor families be educated. Though high school and college costs are high, some elementary schools are free to attend. But these poor families don't even have the means to provide school supplies, uniforms or transportation for the children to go to these free schools.

Education truly can break the terrible cycle of poverty, it can be the hope of the future for children everywhere, especially children from desperately poor families.

Fr. Bormate will tell his stories at all July 19-20 Masses.
He will surely touch your hearts!

Donate for a Chance to Win $500.00!

For a $5.00 donation, you have the chance to win our grand prize of $500.00 along with seven other prizes to help support the many projects the Knights are involved in.

The Knights will be selling tickets in the Narthex the weekend of July 12th and 13th with the final drawing to be held after the 5:00 p.m. Mass on August 2nd. The winner need not be present to win. Last year's top prize went to Sarah Halm-Lutterodt.

This is a great opportunity to pick up some additional cash (your odds are much better than the lottery) and at the same time support our local Knights of Columbus. A raffle box and tickets will also be available during the month of July on the counter in the narthex if you miss the July date and wish to purchase tickets.
