Meet Fr. Joel

Hello! My name is Fr. Joel Ricafranca, RCJ, a Rogationist Priest from the Philippines. I was born on March 8, 1982, entered the seminary in May 2003, and made my Perpetual Profession on June 1, 2013. I was ordained deacon in the following year and finished my theological studies at Don Bosco Center of Studies (Affiliate of Salesian Pontifical University), in the same year. I was ordained a priest on October 24, 2015, and was assigned as Assistant Novice Master in Silang, Cavite, Philippines. In the year 2017, I was sent to Indonesia for missionary work as a Vocation Promoter and Prefect of Discipline. From 2019-2023, I was assigned as the Associate Pastor at Saint Jerome Parish in Chicago, Illinois, while taking a master's degree in counseling in Ministry. Since July 2023, I have been appointed as the Rector and Superior of the Rogationist Seminary Manila, Philippines. I'm here to assist Fr. Joe Gasta until his Parochial Vicar comes here to St. Mary Parish. It is my honor to extend my priestly ministry here, and I am sincerely grateful for your support and prayers. Thanks and God bless,
Fr. Joel

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

One of my close friends is a hermit priest who lives on a desert mountain. Recently I found myself in a group conversation about him. One vehemently objected, "What does he do up there all day? Nothing! Priests are down here working, running parishes, making a difference, and he... he is doing nothing! What a waste." The words dripped with indignation and resentment. Most of the group quietly nodded in silent agreement. Were they correct?

No! To see why, consider a similar scenario in this week's Gospel. Jesus visits his friends Martha and Mary. A hardworking and exasperated Martha complains to Jesus that her sister is attending to him rather than to urgent household tasks. Our Lord, rather than praising hospitality, explicitly celebrates the less-productive sister for doing the "one necessary thing." He praises her for she "has chosen the better part" (Luke 10:42). Mary is busy doing what matters.

Before we freak out like Martha, consider that all work — domestic, manual, professional, ministerial, contemplative — is done to help us (sooner or later) to experience the love that makes us happy. We should be thankful for those who focus on the "better part" of radical, ceaseless prayer. They invite us to remember the purpose of all work is the enjoyment of love. Contemplatives, hermits, anyone fervently committed to prayer—they invite us to cast aside our forgetful, resentful, and self-aggrandizing attitudes in exchange for hearts ready to do what is finally necessary.

Stewardship

In today's Gospel reading from St. Luke, we receive a reminder about the proper use of the gift of time, a fundamental aspect of a stewardship way of life. Our passage highlights one of the most famous dinner parties ever thrown, recalling the day that Martha and Mary hosted our Lord in their home. We are told that Martha, as a good steward, welcomes Christ in but then becomes "burdened with much serving" while her sister and fellow hostess chooses to simply sit with Jesus, listening to Him speak.

Martha becomes indignant at Mary's behavior and complains to Jesus, "Lord, do you not care that my sister has left me by myself to do the serving? Tell her to help me." But Jesus, in His infinite wisdom, refuses to get pulled into this sisterly spat. Instead, He offers Martha a fresh way to look at the situation. "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and worried about many things. There is need of only one thing."

What is that one thing? It is to put Jesus first in our lives and above all other things; to "sit at his feet" and listen as Mary did, giving Him the priority of our time no matter how busy we think we are. When we truly commit to putting Christ first in our daily lives through a regular time of prayer and frequent participation in the sacraments, we will find that all our other concerns become less pressing, less overwhelming.

Why is this so? Because the time we invest in our relationship with God saturates all aspects of our lives with His grace. And because God cannot be outdone in generosity, He will abundantly reward any sacrifice we make to spend time with Him.

ST. MARY MISSION APPEAL

Fr. Bormate from the Philippines is coming
July 19-20 to all Masses!

Fr. Bormate is coming to St. Mary's Parish!

He is a priest in the Diocese of Borongan, Eastern Samar, Philippines. This Diocese is located on the far eastern coast of the Philippines where typhoons frequently visit causing massive destruction to homes and terrible loss of lives. The main livelihood of the locals are coconut and rice farming or fishing. Often their livelihoods are wiped out after typhoons leaving families without a way to put food on their tables or send their children to school.

In 2013, Supertyphoon Haiyan hit this area. Many lives were lost and total areas devastated! With the grace of God and the generosity of others, they are gradually recovering, even 12 years later.

Fr. Bormate will be speaking about an effort of the Borongan Diocese to help children from poor families be educated. Though high school and college costs are high, some elementary schools are free to attend. But these poor families don't even have the means to provide school supplies, uniforms or transportation for the children to go to these free schools.

Education truly can break the terrible cycle of poverty, it can be the hope of the future for children everywhere, especially children from desperately poor families.

Fr. Bormate will tell his stories at all July 19-20 Masses.
He will surely touch your hearts!
