CODES OF CONDUCT

Dated 16th April 2026

A code of conduct is an important policy which sets out the standards of acceptable behaviour within an organisation.

The codes of conduct are applicable for all individuals engaging in Blue Light Sports Foundation, its events, activities, products and services. This includes all members, employees, volunteers and any other person directly connected to Blue Light Sports Foundation in any capacity.

These codes of conduct must be always upheld, without exception.

Codes of Conduct are signed by individuals and organisations associated with Blue Light Sports Foundation prior to engaging in any activities.

Signed

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'G. Callier'. The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.
