WANDERER FREEDOM

Your Stay, Your Way. Let the Adventure Begins

1 MONDAY · ARRIVE IN BROKEN HILL

Your host from Silver City Tours will greet and escort you to your accommodation.

2 TUESDAY: CITY SIGHTS HERITAGE TOUR, WHITES MINERAL ART GALLERY & MINING MUSEUM AND SUNSET SCULPTURES SYMPOSIUM

Discover Australia's first Heritage-Listed City as Broken Hill's mining story comes to life. Visit the Miner's Memorial atop the Line of Lode, enjoy sweeping views and learn how BHP and the mighty ore body shaped the city. Admire heritage architecture and miners' cottages, then explore White's Mineral Art and Mining Museum, filled with mining scenes, memorabilia and mineral artworks. At sunset, continue to the Living Desert Sculpture Symposium, where works by 12 international artists glow spectacularly against the changing outback sky.

3 WEDNESDAY: MENDINDEE AND KINCHEGA NATIONAL PARK (L)

This leisurely full-day tour explores the picturesque Menindee Lakes scheme and historic Menindee, with scenic stops along the way. Discover the natural beauty and pioneering heritage of Kinchega National Park (roads permitting), where ancient river red gums, abundant bird life and sweeping outback landscapes create a memorable experience.

WANDERER FREEDOM

Silverton Magic, Local Art & Outback Characters

4 THURSDAY: DAYDREAM MINE,SILVERTON GHOST TOWN, TIPSY CAMEL (D)

Venture beyond Broken Hill to discover two of the region's most iconic destinations. At historic Daydream Mine, descend into original underground workings dating from 1881 and hear stories of the hardships, courage and determination of the early miners. Continue to Silverton, Australia's most colourful ghost town, where you'll have time to explore its fascinating museums, galleries and local crafts, visit the legendary Silverton Hotel and enjoy lunch at your own expense. Returning to Broken Hill, relax at your accommodation before finishing the day with dinner at the Tipsy Camel, housed within the historic Waverley Brewery and brimming with rustic charm and outback hospitality.

5 FRIDAY: ROYAL FLYING DOCTOR SERVICE, TASTE OF THE ARTBACK AND PALACE HOTEL (D)

Begin with a visit to the Royal Flying Doctor Service and discover its vital role in delivering healthcare across remote Australia. Spend the afternoon exploring Broken Hill's vibrant galleries, where distinctive outback landscapes and remarkable local talent reveal the city's creative spirit. Conclude with a tour and dinner at the iconic Palace Hotel, famously featured in Priscilla, Queen of the Desert. Then try your luck at two-up, a lively local tradition that Broken Hill is uniquely permitted to host regularly. So, join the locals and give it a spin!
