OUTER BURIAL CONTAINER PRICE LIST

Prices are effective January 1, 2025 and are subject to change without notice.

State or local law does not require that you buy a container to surround the casket in the grave. However, many cemeteries require that you have such a container so that the grave will not sink in. Either a grave liner or a burial vault will satisfy these requirements.

PAYMENT POLICY

We have found that a clear understanding with each family that we serve makes financial matters concerning the funeral or memorial service easier. Our families have told us that they want to know their options concerning payment and when and how payment is expected. It is our pledge to you that we will offer selections and services in many price ranges for your selection. This information is intended to assist you in selecting the services desired at a cost that is within your budget.

In order for Hinton-Turner Funeral Home to maintain sound business practices, provide continuous 24 hour per day operation, and maintain a facility of fitting dignity for funeral services, we have the following options for payment of your funeral account.

All financial arrangements for the funeral or memorial services must be settled prior to any public announcements by the funeral home. Because of Federal Truth in Lending Laws, Hinton-Turner Funeral Home is unable to provide in-house financing or monthly payment arrangements. You may wish to contact your personal financial institution to provide financing if one of the following options will not meet you needs. Feel free to speak openly with your funeral director concerning these matters.

You may select one or a combination of the following options:

- A. Payment with Cash or a Good Check
- B. Payment with assignment of valid insurance by the current beneficiary from a company that will confirm information to the funeral home and cooperate with and pay proceeds to the funeral home as requested.
- C. Paid Pre-Need funeral plans which are currently in force.
