Rackson Suico was saved when he was 14 years old when I was preaching a revival meeting in the Philippines. Four years later we went back to the Philippines to preach a Youth Conference. At that Youth Conference God called an 18 year old Rackson Suico to preach the gospel. Pastor Rackson has struggled through the past 13 years in the small town of Ubay, Bohol, his home town, planting a church and building a ministry, including a Bible Institute. He has now firmly established a church of 80-100 people and is planting a second church in the town of Mabini. Through pastor Rackson we were put in touch with several local pastors who, like pastor Rackson, are struggling through starting their own churches and ministries. We are going to plug ourselves into these ministries, starting this coming June, to start training these pastors, their young church planters, and teaching their people the Word of God to help them grow in grace. Please pray for them!
