

Assistant Professor of Management

Union Commonwealth University seeks applicants for a 9-month full-time faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor of Management, with appointment beginning in the Spring 2027 semester. Candidates must possess a minimum of an MBA or closely related master's degree in business, economics, or management. Candidates holding a terminal degree (a Ph.D. in business, economics, management, or closely related field, a DBA, or equivalent) are eligible for tenure-track appointment, while candidates holding a master's degree are eligible for non-tenure-track appointment.

We seek a student-centered teacher who is excited about dynamic pedagogy. The position will have teaching responsibility for a wide variety of undergraduate management courses including finance/economics, ethics, operations management, and strategic management. We are especially interested in qualified candidates who are excited to teach general education courses and interdisciplinary students and who are committed to recruiting new majors from general education courses. Comfortable familiarity with educational technologies is a plus, and a student-centered pedagogical approach is a must.

In addition to teaching duties outlined above, the individual hired for this position will serve as the champion on campus for hybrid programs in supply chain management, actuarial sciences, human resource management, finance, healthcare administration, and professional sales, offered through UCU's partnership with RIZE.

Union faculty are also responsible for student advising, service to the institution, active participation in the life of the campus, and ongoing professional development.

Screening of applicants will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter of interest, curriculum vitae, and the contact information for three professional references to:
