 "Let the little children come to me." Matthew 4:19

Sometimes we get busy and focused on what we want. We forget to slow down and notice all the wonderful gifts God has given us.

Today's Gospel tells us about a wonderful gift that Jesus gave a Samaritan man who was ill. What did the Samaritan do when he realized that Jesus had healed him? (He glorified God; he fell at Jesus' feet and thanked him). Jesus told the man that by thanking God, his faith had saved him.

Luke 17:11-19

Jesus heals 10 lepers, and one, the Samaritan, returns to give thanks.

Today we hear about how Jesus, continuing on his journey to Jerusalem, heals 10 lepers. This story is a lesson about faith and reminds us that faith is sometimes found in unlikely places. Ten people afflicted with leprosy cry out to Jesus. Struck with pity, Jesus heals all 10. However, only one is described as glorifying God and returning to thank Jesus. The one who returns is a Samaritan, a foreigner. In the Jewish circles in which Jesus lived, Samaritans were looked down upon because of the differences between the two communities in their observance of Judaism. It is significant, therefore, that Jesus commends the Samaritan for his faith, which has been his salvation. Throughout Luke's Gospel, faith is found in surprising places.

Another lesson for us in this Gospel has to do with salvation. All 10 of the lepers were given the gift of healing, but in his gratitude to God for this gift, the Samaritan found salvation. Our salvation is found in recognizing the gifts we have been given and knowing to whom we must offer our thanks.

What Do Catholics Believe About Salvation?

We believe that salvation is a process by which we come closer to God throughout our whole life as we participate in the sacraments and the grace that comes through them. But it is not true that man plays as important a role as God. God the Father planned our salvation, not man. God the Son gained our salvation by his death and resurrection; no one else did these things. And God the Holy Spirit infused the very love of God into our hearts by his presence (cf. Rom. 5:5). This is beyond our human ability. Still, we must cooperate with God's grace to find eternal happiness with God. If we don't, we will be cut off from God forever. The Church teaches that only God can save us. If that weren't true, then Christ died for nothing. All that we do is respond with faith and obedience to God's offer of grace in Christ. We insist that this is a lifelong commitment that should grow over time. God's grace grows within us as we trust in God more and follow his commandments. The final outcome of a life of faith and obedience is eternal life with God. The Church understands that we are all sinners in need of a savior (Rom 5:12-21). We are inheritors of original sin and all its consequences, and by actual sin we distance ourselves from God. We can't save ourselves, but we don't need to: Jesus Christ has paid the price for our sins. The Catholic Church teaches that salvation comes through Jesus alone (Acts 4:12), since he is the "one mediator between God and man" (1 Tm 2:5-6).
