Catholic Kid's Corner

And kids at heart!

Today we celebrate All Saints Day, a special day when we remember all the holy men, women, and children who loved and followed Jesus. The saints are part of God's family, and they pray for us and help us grow closer to Jesus. In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us about the Beatitudes. He says that people are blessed when they are kind, merciful, peaceful, and trusting in God. These may not seem like the things the world talks about when it talks about being happy, but Jesus shows us that true happiness comes from loving God and loving others. The saints lived this way every day. They helped people, showed kindness, forgave others, and trusted God even when life was difficult. They remind us that anyone can become a saint by following Jesus in the little things we do each day. As we celebrate All Saints Day, let's thank God for the saints, ask for their prayers, and try to be more like them by showing kindness, sharing God's love, and following Jesus with all our hearts.

Matthew 5:1-12

Jesus Teaches what it means to be happy.

Every year the Church recalls the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. These saints are more than just role models; they are family members with whom we continue to share relation, in a bond of prayer, called the Communion of Saints. Every year when we celebrate this day, the Gospel we proclaim recalls for us Jesus' teaching about happiness, the Beatitudes. We quickly note in this reading that none of those Jesus names as "blessed" or "happy" are expected . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

What does Jesus mean when he uses the word "blessed?" This word is sometimes translated as "happy" or "fortunate" or "favored." In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, who mourn, who are persecuted. This might have been welcome and surprising news to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Because of this, it is natural that we proclaim this Gospel on the Feast of All Saints. Saints are people who lived the spirit of the Beatitudes as Jesus lived. On this day, we too are challenged to model our lives on the spirit and promises of the Beatitudes

"Sisters and brothers, the mystery of the communion of saints, which we breathe in deeply today, reminds us of the final destiny of humanity: a great celebration in which we rejoice together in the love of God, present in all, recognizing and admiring the multifaceted beauty of faces, all different and all resembling the face of Christ."

THE CATHOLIC CORNER

The Feast of All Saints invites us to remember that we are never alone on our journey of faith. The saints are not distant figures from the past, but our brothers and sisters in Christ who continue to pray for us and encourage us through the Communion of Saints. Their lives remind us that holiness is possible in every age and every circumstance.
On this feast, we hear Jesus proclaim the Beatitudes, teaching us what true blessedness looks like in the eyes of God. His words challenge our usual understanding of happiness. He calls the poor in spirit, the merciful, those who mourn, and those who persevere through hardship. These are not the values the world often celebrates, yet Jesus assures us that God's grace and favor rest upon them.
The saints embraced this way of life. They trusted God in times of joy and sorrow, showed mercy, sought peace, and remained faithful even when it was difficult. Their witness reminds us that the path to holiness is found in the ordinary moments of daily life lived with love and trust in God.
As we celebrate All Saints Day, may we give thanks for their example, seek their prayers, and open our hearts to the grace that calls each of us to be saints as well. May the Beatitudes shape our lives and lead us ever closer to the happiness and peace found in Christ.

A MESSAGE OF THANKFULLNESS FROM YOUTH FAITH FORMATION:

Thanks to our amazing parishioners, volunteers, and staff, our annual FALL-O-WEEN JESUS Halloween Carnival was a huge success that was measured by all the smiles on the kids and families that attended! From the very generous gift certificates and cards, set-up/clean-up helpers, to the cake donations, we can't express our gratitude enough!
