"Let the little children come to me." Matthew 4:19

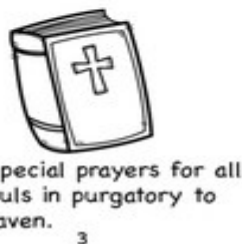

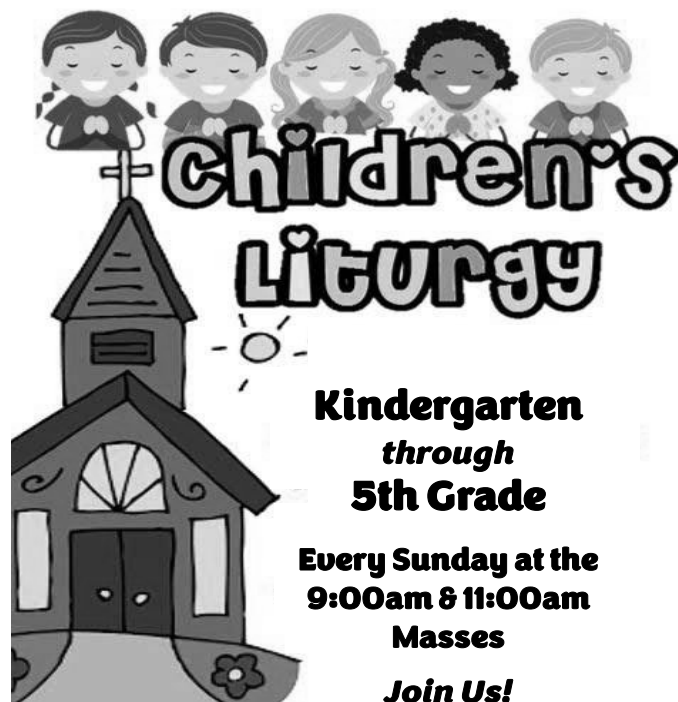

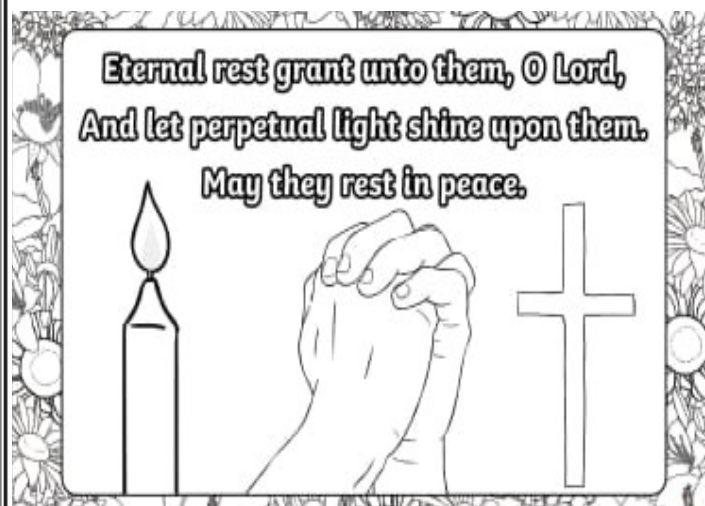

In today's Gospel, we hear about Jesus' friends Lazarus, Mary, and Martha. Lazarus has died. Martha believed in and loved Jesus. She knew that he was the Son of God. Jesus promised her that everyone who believed in him would have life forever with God in heaven. Martha trusted Jesus' promise. We can trust it, too, because Jesus' words are true.

On the Feast of All Souls, we pray for the souls of all those who have died. There are many choices of readings for this day, all focusing on our belief in the resurrection of the dead and Jesus' promise of eternal life. The Gospel story of the raising of Lazarus offers us many important insights about this aspect of our faith.

Jesus was good friends with Lazarus and his sisters, Martha and Mary. Lazarus had fallen ill, and Martha and Mary had sent word to Jesus. Jesus delays his journey to them, however, and when he arrives in Bethany, he finds that Lazarus is dead and has been buried for four days.

The scene described at Bethany is a sad one; Lazarus and his family have many friends who have come to mourn his death. Martha goes out to meet Jesus when he arrives. She cries with him, saying that if Jesus had been there, Lazarus would not have died. Yet she remains confident that God will do whatever Jesus asks. Jesus consoles her with the promise that Lazarus would rise from the dead. Martha affirms her belief that there will be resurrection of the dead in the last days. Jesus promises her even more; he says that he himself is the Resurrection and the life for all those who believe in him. Martha professes her faith in this, acknowledging that Jesus is Christ, the Son of God.

This is the profession of faith we continue to make, and it is the promise on which we base our hope for eternal life for ourselves and for all those who have died. In his death and Resurrection, Jesus has conquered death for all those who believe in him.

We believe that we continue to share a relationship with those who have died. When we pray for the souls of the faithful departed, we are praying for those whose souls are journeying through purgatory, being prepared for eternal life in heaven. We believe that our prayers for them will help to speed their journey to eternal life with God in heaven.

A MESSAGE OF THANKFULLNESS FROM YOUTH FAITH FORMATION:

SO
THANKFUL FOR YOU

Thanks to our amazing parishioners, volunteers, and staff, our annual FALL-O-WEEN JESUS Halloween Carnival was a huge success that was measured by all the smiles on the kids and families that attended! From the so very generous gift certificates and cards, set-up/clean-up helpers, to the cake donations, we can't express our gratitude enough!

THE CATHOLIC CORNER

Why and When to Pray for the Departed

As Christians believing in the resurrection of Jesus Christ, we should realize that those who are deceased are with us and are part of our church in the same way as those who live on this earth. Therefore, not only do we pray for them but they also pray for us. As someone asks their friends for prayer and at the same time prays for them, so we pray for one another without any concern that we are separated by death.

When we pray for the living and the dead we say, "Lord, have mercy." In reality, we do not know what specifically to pray for in regards to those with whom we live. Only God knows what is best for our salvation, so we pray, "Lord, have mercy." Likewise, we do not know the needs and concerns of the departed, only God knows, and believing in His knowledge we pray, "Lord, have mercy."

St. Ambrose, when he preached on the fortieth day after the death of Emperor Theodosius, was consoling the survivors with these words: "... I love him, and will not leave him until, through my tears and prayers, I bring him to the holy mountain of God (Psalm 2:6), where is eternal life". We Christians therefore, have a very important role in praying for the departed especially since we are their advocates who defend their souls which are already standing before God's face and awaiting the second coming of Jesus Christ at the Last Judgment.

For you, O Christ our God, are the resurrection, the life, and the repose of your departed servants, and we give glory to you, with your eternal Father, and your all-holy, good, and life-creating Spirit, now and ever and forever. Amen.

Christian Women Outdoors Ministry

Wednesday, November 5th, 10-11:30am. 3 mile Bosque walk starting at the Open Space Visitor Center off Coors. We will be catching the last of autumn leaves and hopefully see more of God's creatures (deer, coyote, and various birds so far this year). After the walk those that wish will visit the center.
