

Catholic Kid's Corner

And kids at heart!

This week is all about The Beatitudes: eight promises of Jesus! He shows that when we live like his disciples, then that is when we are truly blessed.

Matthew 5:1-12a
The Beatitudes

Want to know the secret to happiness? The answer is revealed in the Beatitudes. Want to be the best Catholic you can ever be? The Beatitudes tell you how. Want to make Jesus happy? Practice the doctrine of the Beatitudes. The Beatitudes are eight simply stated, yet profound guidelines Jesus revealed to His followers during his Sermon on the Mount. Jesus uses the words of the Beatitudes to paint a picture of what the true people of God look like. Not physically, but morally and spiritually.

The word beatitude is defined as a state of utmost bliss. The eight Beatitudes are therefore, the roadmap Jesus gives to us to help us find the utmost bliss in the world and the next. Those not familiar with the Beatitudes may be taken aback when they read them and discover that the secret to happiness is hungering, thirsting, and being persecuted for what is right, living meekly, mourning, and being merciful.

Is this right? Yes. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains that the Beatitudes "are paradoxical promises that sustain hope in the midst of tribulation." The Beatitudes are difficult for us to understand because they are the antithesis of everything that the world we live in pushes us to believe; that in order to be happy, we have to be rich, own a huge home, be physically attractive, have an extensive wardrobe, etc.

Like any bad habit, we have to break away from this way of thinking and follow instead the blueprint the Beatitudes present. If we can do it, we'll have the full blessings of the Kingdom of Heaven to look forward to.

THE CATHOLIC CORNER

What is Catholic Social Teaching?

- 1) Dignity of the Human Person: The foundation of all Catholic Social Teaching is the inherent dignity of the human person, as created in the image and likeness of God. The Church, therefore, calls for Integral Human Development, which concerns the wellbeing of each person in every dimension: Economic, Political, Social, Ecological, and Spiritual.
- 2) Common Good: We are called to consider the good of others, and the good of the whole human family.
- 3) Solidarity: We must see ourselves in others and recognize that we are interconnected and interdependent. Loving our neighbor has global dimensions.
- 4) Preferential Option for the Poor: The moral test for any society is based on how the most vulnerable are treated. We are not called to focus on the poor to the exclusion of others, but rather that we are called to prioritize those who are in most need.
- 5) Stewardship of Creation: The Earth is sacred. Creation has its own intrinsic value. We have a responsibility to protect and cherish the Earth's ecological diversity, beauty and life-sustaining properties. We hold creation in trust for future generations.
- 6) Subsidiarity and the Role of Government: The state must promote human dignity, protect human rights, and develop the common good. Every function of government should be performed at the lowest level possible.
- 7) Participation: Human beings are social, and how we live together affects the dignity of the individual and the progress of society. All persons are entitled to participate in decisions that affect their lives.
- 8) Rights & Responsibilities: We all have a right to those things which are required by Human Dignity. Rights arise from what we need to live as God intended us to. These are innately linked with our responsibility to ensure the rights of others.
- 9) Economic Justice: The economy must serve the people, and not the other way around. All persons have a right to dignified work, and to fair wages, and working conditions. Work is more than a way to make a living, it is a form of continuing participation in God's creation.
- 10) Peace: To be in right relationship with God and with each other. Peace is the fruit of Charity and the consequence of Justice. It is a sign of Christian Love in action.
