

Catholic Kid's Corner

And kids at heart!

God our Father made us out of love. His Son, Jesus, brings us God's love. In today's Gospel, we hear how God the Father showed his great love for us.

God showed us his love by sending his Son, Jesus, to save the world.

John 3:16-18

God sent his Son into the world to save the world.

This week we return to the liturgical season of Ordinary Time. This Sunday and next, however, are designated as solemnities—special days that call our attention to central mysteries of our faith. Today on Trinity Sunday we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity, one God in three persons.

Today's Gospel is from the beginning of John's Gospel. The passage we read follows Jesus' conversation with a Pharisee, Nicodemus, about what it means to be born of both water and the spirit. Nicodemus approaches Jesus at night and acknowledges Jesus as a teacher from God. Jesus tells him that only those who are born from above will see the Kingdom of God. Nicodemus misunderstands and questions how a person can be born more than once. Jesus tells Nicodemus that no one can enter the Kingdom of God without being born of water and Spirit. Jesus is essentially explaining Baptism, which we celebrate as a sacrament today. Yet Nicodemus, we are told, still does not understand what Jesus is saying. Jesus continues by testifying to the need to be born from above so that one might have eternal life.

After the dialogue with Nicodemus, the author of the Gospel offers his own explanation of Jesus' words. This is what we read in today's Gospel, John 3:16-18.

In the context of today's focus on the mystery of the Holy Trinity, the reading calls our attention to the action of God, who reveals himself in three persons: God the Father, Jesus the Son, and the Holy Spirit. God the Father, out of love for the world, sent his Son into the world in order to save it. Through the death and resurrection of the Son, we have been given the gift of the Holy Spirit. As three persons, God acts always as a God of love; he does not condemn the world but acts to save it.

The Gospel also calls attention to the response that is required of us. God's love for us calls us to respond in faith by professing our belief in God's son, Jesus, and the salvation that he has won for us. This profession of faith is a sign of the work of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

The Holy Trinity

In the Catechism of the Catholic Church we are taught that the central mystery of the faith, the fundamental and essential teaching of Christianity, is the doctrine of the Trinity (234). This is the revelation that our Almighty Creator is one God in three Persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. This is a mystery inaccessible to our finite human reason alone, but God has lovingly unveiled this truth about his inner life to us. How do we understand this teaching that God is one yet three? This is beyond our full comprehension, but we should not let this be an obstacle to meditating on this mystery. As Catholics, we reject any ideas of polytheism so we cannot misunderstand the Triune God to be teaching there are three Gods. We hold there is one true God who alone we worship. This Supreme Being has one divine nature and this nature is fully possessed by three Divine Persons. The word "Trinity" is a combination of "tri" and "unity" and is used in theology because we know through revelation that God is one yet three. God has one divine nature and there are three divine persons in the one Godhead: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. These three persons are in communion with each other such that they are truly distinct persons, yet they are also inseparable and indivisible. At times in Scripture and in Church teaching we may see that certain actions are assigned to one of the Divine Persons. As an example, God the Father is often referred to as the Creator, God the Son is called Wisdom, and the Holy Spirit is called Love. This is called the principle of appropriation. This is not intended to suggest exclusivity in these actions but rather it is something done for our sake — for catechetical purposes to emphasize that in God there are three persons who are distinct. But all three Divine Persons can be called "Creator," "Wisdom" and "Love." The only action of God that is truly unique is that it is only God the Son who became man. All three divine persons have no beginning and no end, all created the world, all spoke through the prophets, and all love unconditionally. And God has revealed that the reason he created us is because he desires a relationship with us now and for all eternity. Everything he does is because of his love for us. Unveiling the mystery of the Trinity is a loving invitation for us to contemplate him and, as we do, he will draw us into closer communion with himself — the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit.

"The Lord says to us, 'Do not fear: I am with you' (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering. And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory.

He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new."
