

Catholic Kid's Corner

And kids at heart!

In today's Gospel reading, the disciples are feeling afraid. Jesus tells the disciples that God knows, loves, and protects them. Jesus said that God knows how many hairs we have on our head. God knows all our fears and when we are scared. Jesus tells us we do not need to be afraid because the Father knows us and cares for us.

Matthew 10:26-33

Jesus assures the Twelve that God cares about them.

We read today's Gospel in the context of last week's Gospel in which Jesus sent the twelve disciples to proclaim the kingdom of heaven. In between last week's reading and today's reading, Jesus has predicted that the disciples will face difficulties in their mission. Many people will not receive them well, even within the land of Israel. Even family members will turn away from the disciples because of the disciples' commitment to Jesus and the kingdom. Today's Gospel offers the disciples consolation against this difficult truth. This section of Matthew's Gospel should be read in the context of Matthew's intended audience, a Jewish-Christian community. The Gospel alludes to the dangers and persecutions that this community has most likely already faced and will continue to face. To reassure this community, Matthew recalls for them the encouraging words of Jesus that we read today. In this Gospel passage, Jesus might be understood as putting suffering in perspective. The disciples of Jesus are called upon to keep their focus on God. Those who can harm the body do not have ultimate power; God does. Still persecution and suffering can not be avoided or prevented. But Jesus reassures his disciples that God knows and cares about what happens to his children. We might not face the same type of persecution, but we do experience difficulties as we endeavor to live a Christian life. Sometimes we let the opinions of others prevent us from doing what we know to be right. We need the reminder that what God thinks about us is more important. We are reassured by the promise that God cares for us and protects us.

Don't be afraid. Everything is possible with God.
 - Jesus

FATHERS DAY

A Prayer for Fathers and Father Figures

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer,
 Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary.
 To you God entrusted his only Son;
 in you Mary placed her trust;
 with you Christ became man.
 Blessed Joseph, to us too,
 show yourself a father and
 guide us in the path of life.
 Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage,
 and defend us from every evil.
 Amen.

Pope Francis

May all men look to St. Joseph and invoke his intercession, whether they are fathers or father figures.

MUSIC MINISTERS NEEDED

"SING TO THE LORD A NEW SONG!" PSALM 96:1

Have you been blessed with a love of music? Whether you are a seasoned musician, a beginner, young or young at heart, we invite you to prayerfully consider joining our Music Ministry.

We welcome music ministers of all ages and all levels of musical ability. Vocalists, pianists, guitarists, string players, wind and brass instrumentalists, and percussionists are encouraged to participate.

Our parish is deeply grateful for the many gifts God has entrusted to His people. By sharing your musical talents, you can help foster active participation of our community in prayer, worship, and praise while enriching the celebration of the Holy Mass.

No matter where you are in your musical journey, your willingness to serve is a blessing. Together, we can offer our gifts back to God in thanksgiving and inspire others through sacred music.

Come share the gift you have been given!

THE CATHOLIC CORNER

St. Joseph, Our Spiritual Father

God gave full possession of Himself to Joseph in divine generosity, and in return, Joseph gave himself fully to God. Before his young wife came to live with him, she was found to be with child. As he was processing this shocking news, the Angel of the Lord appeared to him, telling him not to be afraid to take Mary into his home as his wife. What incredible confusion and unworthiness he must have felt after the Angel told him the child was the Messiah, the long-awaited Savior of his people. Imagine how unworthy he found himself to be as the leader of the Holy Family. Yet Joseph was devout; he was just. He gave himself fully and completely to the designs of God. Despite the confusion about this topic in our culture today, there is a hierarchy of love that prevails in family life. A husband and father has a very particular spiritual authority in his family. God has intended for that authority to extend to daily life as he guides, guards, and protects his wife and children, and provides for their needs as the head of the family. God the Father gave St. Joseph authority over Mary and the Divine Child. His angel appeared to Joseph in dreams to inform and guide him—the angel did not appear to Our Lady after the Annunciation, nor to Christ, the Infant God. Joseph's God-given role was to be a true spouse and father to Our Lady and to Jesus; he was the leader of their family. God did not disrupt this order, even under these circumstances, because He Himself designed it that way. Joseph may have felt ill-equipped in his humanity, but because God chose him for this role, the Lord enriched Joseph with the gifts appropriate to his paternity and to every other task and duty entrusted to him. For his part, Joseph put his entire life at the service of Love.

"Human dignity does not depend on a person's abilities, wealth, or position in life, nor on the right or wrong choices made; instead, it is a gift that precedes and transcends each person, endowed by God as an expression of his unfailing love." Pope Leo XIV, Encyclical Letter Magnifica Humanitas.
