♥ And kids at heart! ♥
t the little children come to me." Mt. 9:14

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus tells us that we need to be alert disciples. Jesus wants us to be alert for his return. Jesus has saved us, but we should not just sit back and do nothing. He teaches us that we should pay attention to others and notice how we can help them. That way, when Jesus returns, hé will find us acting as his loving disciples. Let's all plan to pay special attention to how we can help our family and friends today.

The LORD is my shepherd, I shall not want. He makes me lie down in green pastures; he leads me beside still waters; he restores my soul. He leads me in right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I fear no evil; for you are with me; your rod and your staff — they comfort me.

August 10, 2025 Nineteenth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Luke 12:32-48

You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come.

Jesus' instructions on how to be ready for the coming judgment continue in the stories and sayings found in today's Gospel. We are not to be like the greedy rich man in last Sunday's Gospel who planned to store his great harvest in barns rather than share it. We are, rather, to share our wealth with those in need. The antidote for the anxiety brought on by the coming judgment is to relinquish our possessions and provide for the needs of others. Our treasure will be in heaven where it will not wear out or be destroyed. The other major way to be ready for the coming judgment is to be watchful. In Luke's Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about watchfulness to begin making this point. We must be like servants waiting for the master's return from a wedding banquet, which, even now, can last for a few days in the Middle East. We must be watchful so that even if the master comes after midnight, we will be ready for him. This is what the coming of the Son of Man will be like. Peter asks if this parable is meant for the apostles or for the large crowd that has gathered to listen to Jesus. Without answering Peter's question, Jesus responds with another parable about servants awaiting the return of their master. It begins with a question: "Who, then, is the faithful and prudent steward whom the master will put in charge of his servants to distribute the food allowance at the proper time?" This parable adds to the theme of watchfulness; it explains how to wait and reminds us of the reward for the faithful follower at the heavenly banquet after the judgment. If it is addressed to the apostles, then it could also be addressed to leadership in the early Church. Either way, the parables reminds us that we should be found doing our jobs when the master arrives.

If we are doing our jobs, our reward will be great. But if we relax, neglect our duties, and begin to act like the greedy rich man—eating, drinking, and making merry— we will not have a place in the kingdom. Watchfulness means living in such a consistently moral and obedient way that we are always ready to give an account to God of how we have lived

DO NOT FEAR, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.

Life Is Busy... Why do we need to make time for Faith Formation?

Think of your favorite sport. If you played in the 2nd and 3rd grade (First Holy Communion), but decide to take a break until you are in high school (Confirmation), you night find yourself out of shape and might need to train extra hard to be able to compete with other athletes that have trained nonstop. Faith Formation is like practice. The more we practice, the more prepared and in shape we are to open our hearts and mind to the Holy Spirit.

My teen has already received the Sacrament of Confirmation...

Your teen received the amazing gift of the Holy Spirit at Confirmation. Think of a wrapped birthday gift you have received. You have the option of putting the unopened gift in a drawer until you need it or taking it out of the box and proudly displaying it and using it. There are still many things to learn. Faith Formation after Confirmation and throughout High School helps give your teen a sense of support and community. It helps them to continue to grow in their Catholic Faith.

Faith Formation prepares our kids for their faith journey. It provides them with the knowledge to make good and healthy life choices as well as the tools to overcome challenges that may come their way in life.

Let's face it, raising a family in today's world is tough stuff.... but WITH GOD, ALL THINGS ARE POSSIBLE!

"Although we may feel unsure how best to comfort those who mourn, we must stand with them in their time of suffering. Miscarriage touches the lives of many people, yet all too often this tragedy remains unaddressed. This lack of response not only often leads to unresolved grief but also fails to clearly manifest our belief that each person, from conception onward, is precious and unique." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "Solace and Strength in the Sorrow of Miscarriage"
