"Let the little children come to me." Mt. 9:14

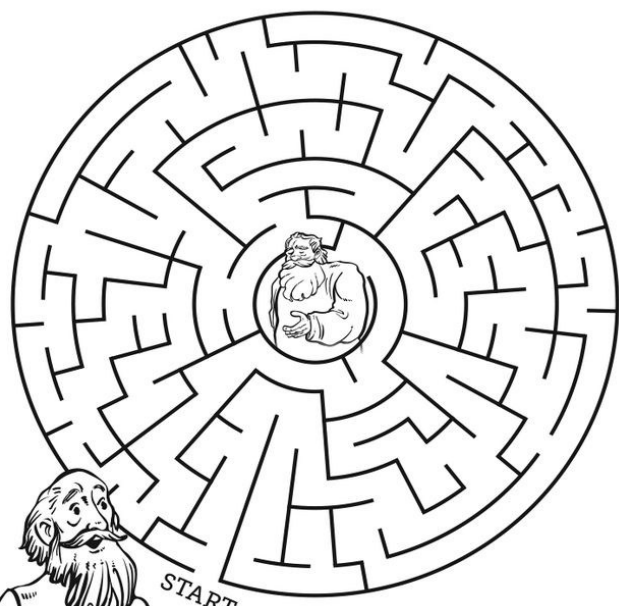

Jesus told a parable, or story, about a man who had many possessions and a man named Lazarus who had none. God calls us to share what we have with others. We might share our toys or a snack with friends. We might donate an old coat we don't use anymore to a charity.

Luke 16:19-31

Jesus tells the parable of the reversal of fortunes between the rich man and the poor man, Lazarus.

A major theme in the Gospel of Luke is the importance of the care of the poor in the life of discipleship. In the parable found in today's Gospel, Jesus contrasts the life of a rich man and the poor man, Lazarus, who lives in the shadow of the rich man and his wealth. Both die. Lazarus finds himself in heaven; the rich man in the netherworld. The rich man asks for assistance from Lazarus in his torment. But Abraham reminds the rich man of the good things he had in his life and describes the current situation as a reversal of fortunes. The rich man then asks that Lazarus be sent to warn his family, but this is denied with the reminder that Moses and the prophets have warned of judgment for those who neglect the care of the poor.

In the context of Luke's Gospel, this parable, delivered in the presence of a crowd of listeners, is part of Jesus' response to some Pharisees. These Pharisees are described in Luke's Gospel as "loving money." (Note: The Pharisees were followers of a sect of Judaism active before, during, and after Jesus' lifetime. They taught an oral interpretation of the Law of Moses as the basis for popular Jewish piety. They put less emphasis on Temple worship and more on applying the law to everyday life. Though they are often portrayed negatively in the Gospels, they shared many of Jesus' and the early Church's concerns about the law.) Jesus observed that the actions of some Pharisees betrayed misplaced priorities: they spoke one way, but acted in another. The story of the rich man and Lazarus demonstrates the importance of the care of the poor and is a reminder to those who would follow Jesus of the unimportance of wealth in the eyes of God.

Shroud of Turin

The Knights of Columbus Risen Savior Council, are honored to present a special gift to our parish — a life-size display of the Shroud of Turin and other items from Christ's crucifixion, a powerful reminder of the sacrifice Jesus made for us. The display will be officially presented on:

Friday, October 3rd at 5:30 PM in the Marian Center, where a presentation will be given. All parishioners are warmly invited to attend. The Youth Group will provide refreshments during the presentation. The Shroud will then be on display in the Marian Center after each Mass that weekend before being moved to its permanent location in the parish library.

We look forward to sharing this wonderful gift with you all. Please spread the word and invite your family, friends, and neighbors!

OUR FAITH

The liturgy, is about the action of God's own people, each with different offices and roles, each office and role, from that of bishop and priest to that of usher and sacristan, one of service, not of privilege, a mirror of Christ who washed the feet of his disciples and instructed his followers to imitate his example of service. -USCCB

Risen Savior Catholic Church

Christ in the Community is a lay-led ministry that continues in the spirit of prayer and sacramental life, after Fr. Graham's own heart. Since his passing from this life to eternal rest in May 2021, we continue to serve our Catholic community locally primarily through partnering with parishes to host Come to Christ Nights of Praise, Worship and Adoration.

Loving & Serving the Poor

One of the defining characteristics of the Catholic faith is its unwavering commitment to the poor and vulnerable. This commitment is not merely about providing charity, but about recognizing, loving, and serving Christ in those most in need. The Gospel of Matthew provides a profound illustration of this. "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me" (Matthew 25:40). These words spoken by Jesus form the core of the Church's social mission. It is a call to see Christ in each person. The Church's concern for the poor is reflected in the Catechism of the Catholic Church. It states, "The Eucharist commits us to the poor. To receive in truth the Body and Blood of Christ given up for us, we must recognize Christ in the poorest, his brethren" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 1397). The Catholic tradition is filled with saints who have been recognized for their exceptional love and service to the poor. These saints serve as examples and guides for us, showing us how to live out the Gospel call to love our neighbor. The saints lived in different times and places, and their lives looked quite different. However, what they all had in common was a deep love for the poor and a commitment to serving them. They serve as an inspiration for all Catholics, calling us to look beyond ourselves and see Christ in those in need.
