Independent & Family Run

As a small business based in the heart of Salisbury, we have the knowledge and expertise to offer a variety of funeral options. These include the Direct Cremation Service, the Classic Funeral, Woodland Burial and a Private Chapel Service with Cremation or Burial.

We are proud to offer a friendly and personal service 24 hours a day, 365 days of the year.

Our dedicated Team are always available on the telephone. We cater to the wishes of those who need us, with funerals as unique as the individual being laid to rest.

We understand every family has their own way of coping with bereavement. We will support and advise you on the arrangements, either here at the Office or in the comfort of your own home.

We realise how important the memory of the final farewell is and will do our utmost to make it special for you.

Open & Transparent

If you require some general advice please feel free to contact us by phone, email or call in to our premises.

Some funeral directors will not always inform you of all the fees that may be incurred until after the funeral. At Darren MacDonald Funeral Directors we offer a fully transparent service and include all fees within our pricing.

As a small family-run firm we have the advantage of being able to keep our costs low for everyone and have signed the Fair Funerals Pledge.

Darren MacDonald, Director & Funeral Director

After 25 years working in Hampshire and Wiltshire employed by Corporate Funeral Directors, I decided I wanted to create a business where I could imprint my way of doing things on this most worthwhile service to the community.

I have always enjoyed helping people but to be allowed to proceed with someone's last wish is an absolute honour.

With this understanding, you are helping to arrange a truly unique event, which will reflect the individual who has died and the hopes of those who loved them.

The doors of our Funeral Home were opened in 2014, complete with Workshop and Chapel dedicated by the Clergy of nearby St Thomas' Church... and we look forward to being there for you in the many years to come.

Procedure To Be Followed After A Death

All deaths in the community, except those that are clear coroner referrals, must be referred to the medical examiner's office. A medical practitioner can complete a Medical Certificate of Cause of Death (MCCD) if they attended the deceased in their lifetime.

The GP must send the completed MCCD to the medical examiner's office, who will then sign and send it to the Registrar. The medical examiner will independently scrutinize the case. They will also speak with the bereaved to answer any questions they have.

The medical examiner's role is to:

- Determine the cause of death
- Decide if the coroner needs to be notified
- Assess the appropriateness of care before death

When The Death Occurs At Home

Inform the family Doctor as soon as possible that death has occurred. They will complete a Medical Certificate of Cause of Death and send it to the medical examiner's office.

When The Death Occurs In A Hospice Or Nursing Home

The staff of the hospice or nursing home will support you in obtaining the Medical Certificate of Cause of Death and will care for your loved one until they are conveyed to our funeral home in a dignified and caring manner.

When The Death Occurs In Hospital

The bereavement services department of the hospital will assist you in obtaining the Medical Certificate of Cause of Death via the hospital. Your loved one will remain in the hospital mortuary until the death has been registered. Once this has taken place, we will make arrangements to convey your loved one into our care.

When The Death Is Referred To The Coroner

Sometimes the Coroner will need to be informed when a Doctor or medical examiner cannot issue the Medical Certificate of Cause of Death.

In these circumstances the Coroner's Office will most likely produce a certificate once the cause of death has been established. This will then enable the funeral arrangements to proceed and the death to be legally registered.

Registering A Death – Who May Register?

The medical examiner's office will notify the representative of the deceased that the Registrar's appointment can go ahead. Informants must register deaths within five days of the medical examiner's office sending the completed MCCD to the register office.

Funeral Plans

A funeral plan is an easy way to arrange the funeral you want in advance. A plan allows you to specify your wishes and pay for the funeral director's services included in your plan.

As customers often tell us, that can bring peace of mind to you and your family. A plan from Golden Charter also includes an allowance towards third party costs. These are essential, non-funeral director services such as the cremation or burial fees, plus the minister or officiant's fee to perform the service.

The value of the allowance included in your plan may grow over time. There will only be more to pay at the time of the funeral if the third party costs exceed the allowance when you buy your plan, or if the costs increase by more than the growth of your plan.

At Darren MacDonald Funeral Directors we work in partnership with Golden Charter to provide you with a simple way to plan ahead. As one of the UK's largest funeral plan providers<sup>1</sup>, Golden Charter has helped nearly 1 million people to plan ahead<sup>2</sup>, so we're completely confident in offering their plans to you.

Everyone has different needs when it comes to funeral planning, so we make sure the plans we offer are as flexible as possible. When you get in touch, we'll be happy to discuss your funeral requirements and tailor a plan to suit you. Rest assured a plan from Golden Charter is available to all UK residents, regardless of age or state of health.

Would you like to know more information about how a Golden Charter funeral plan could work for you? We can provide you with all of the information you need to make an informed decision for you and your family, so get in touch today!

Darren MacDonald Funeral Directors is an appointed representative of Golden Charter Limited trading as Golden Charter Funeral Plans which is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FRN:965279).
