

2026 Sponsorship Opportunities

LOVE IN ACTION. DELIVERING HEALTHY MEALS SINCE 2017.

Hello.

Thank you for taking the time to consider a sponsorship with Compassion Delivered. We know you receive many requests, and we are truly grateful for the opportunity to be considered. Whether you are new to our mission or have supported us for years, thank you.

When life gets hard... Compassion Delivered.

A sponsorship with Compassion Delivered means hope. When someone is diagnosed with a life-threatening or terminal disease, their world can feel like it stops. Everyday tasks become overwhelming, finances are stretched, and simply finding the energy to cook a meal can feel impossible.

That is where you come in.

Your sponsorship provides nourishing, medically supportive meals at no cost to men, women, and children when they need it most. You give families time to rest, time to breathe, and precious moments together. You ensure they never have to choose between the medical care they need and the nutrition their bodies depend on.

Every meal delivered carries more than nourishment. It carries love, dignity, and the reminder that they are not alone.

Together, we meet people in their hardest moments and remind them that even when life feels overwhelming, compassion still shows up.

With heartfelt gratitude,

Daniel & Amanda Anschutz

Co-Founders

Our Story.

Daniel and Amanda Anschutz founded Compassion Delivered in 2017 after seeing firsthand how life-threatening and terminal diseases affect families not just emotionally and physically, but practically. They watched loved ones struggle to meet basic nutritional needs while navigating treatment, mounting expenses, and exhaustion.

While searching for support, they discovered meal-delivery programs serving other communities, but not their own. That realization led to the creation of Compassion Delivered, built on the belief that food is medicine and no one should have to choose between nourishing meals and lifesaving care.

Compassion Delivered is a registered 501 (c)(3) nonprofit. Our EIN is 81-5174934.

Help Support Our Mission

At Compassion Delivered, we believe that an act of kindness, such as a meal can give hope, compassion, and strength. We realized that, like us, so many people have been touched by a family member or friend who has suffered from life-threatening or terminal diseases and had to choose between nutritious meals and medication. We truly believe that with the right food sustainability program, the body can begin to heal.

Our mission is to provide high-quality meals at no cost to people suffering from life-threatening or terminal diseases.

Why This Matters.

When someone is diagnosed with a life-threatening or terminal disease, food is often one of the first things to fall apart. Not because it isn't important, but because everything else suddenly feels heavier.

Compassion Delivered exists in that gap. The impact of medically supportive meal delivery is real and measurable:

Healthcare costs are significantly reduced.

On average, monthly healthcare costs were 31% lower, and hospitalizations were cut in half for patients receiving supportive services compared to those who did not.

Meal delivery helps prevent medical crises.

A report by the Bipartisan Policy Center found that "practical services like meal delivery can make a difference in helping older people avoid flare-ups that can send them to the hospital."

Nutrition supports treatment and recovery.

Proper nutrition helps patients better tolerate treatments, maintain strength, and support immune function during active disease and recovery.

Stress reduction is a form of care.

Removing the burden of grocery shopping, cooking, and decision-making allows patients and caregivers to focus on rest, healing, and time together.

Consistency matters.

Reliable, ongoing meal support provides stability during a season that often feels unpredictable and overwhelming

Our mission is to provide high-quality meals at no cost to people suffering from life-threatening or terminal diseases.
