The Yardley Youth Ballet Company

The Yardley Youth Ballet Company is an in-house children's ballet company based at the studio of Dance Arts of Yardley. It was created in order to give serious ballet students the experience of belonging to a pre-professional dance company. Membership is open to students age nine and older and is by audition only. The company has a varied repertoire, which includes classical as well as contemporary ballet styles. The company members enjoy a structured dance curriculum and are offered a wider variety of opportunities to perform via parades, fairs, local community functions, lecture / demonstrations, and also national and international ballet competitions. Most recently, we have had ballet company members compete in the prestigious Youth American Grand Prix international ballet competition.

Synopsis:

ACT I

In a small German town in a time long ago, Herr Stahlbaum and his wife are hosting a Christmas Eve Party. Clara and Fritz, their children, are sneaking a peek to see what goodies await. The guests arrive along with Clara's mysterious Uncle Drosselmeyer. Uncle Drosselmeyer entertains the children with his magical tricks and life-size wind-up dolls.

The parents give presents to all the children. Uncle Drosselmeyer brings a special gift for Clara - a wooden nutcracker. In a jealous fit, Fritz breaks it. Drosselmeyer quickly repairs it.

The party ends, the guests leave, and the Stahlbaums retire for the night. Clara awakens to see tiny mice creeping into the room. The clock strikes midnight. Suddenly, the room fills with giant rats, led by the Rat King, who menace Clara. To Clara's amazement her Nutcracker comes to life and leads a troop of life-size toy soldiers to battle the rats. The Rat King tries to destroy the Nutcracker! Just when all looks lost, Clara throws her shoe at the Rat King and magically helps the Nutcracker win the battle.

After the battle Clara finds herself in the Land of Snow. Clara is spellbound watching the Snow Queen dance with the Snowflakes. The Snow Queen introduces Clara to a handsome young Prince, who then escorts her to the Land of the Sweets.

ACT II

Clara continues her journey to the Land of the Sweets, where she is greeted by the Sugar Plum Fairy and a host of heavenly angels. In Clara's honor, the Sugar Plum Fairy arranges for the inhabitants of her kingdom to entertain her. Each dance represents a delicious food or drink: a Spanish Dance (chocolate); an Arabian Dance (coffee) and Chinese Dance (tea). Clara is also entertained by a Russian dance, Marzipan candy dancers playing flutes, Mother Ginger (Gingerbread) with her Polichinelles (little clowns), and is mesmerized as a Dewdrop leads the Waltz of the Flowers. Then, the Sugar Plum Fairy and her Cavalier dance a Grand Pas de Deux. As the celebration draws to a close, Clara starts to feel sleepy. The next thing she knows, Clara awakens and wonders if it was all just a beautiful dream.
