The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds;
it does not rest until it reaches its goal,
nor will it withdraw
till the Most High responds.
— Sirach 35:17-18a

MADE RIGHT BEFORE GOD

Although the opening lines of today's first reading claim that the Lord "knows no favorites" (Sirach 35:15) and is "not unduly partial toward the weak" (35:16), the remainder of the passage makes it clear that the Lord does indeed pay special attention to the weak, the oppressed, and the orphans and widows. The psalmist reiterates: "The Lord hears the cry of the poor" (see Psalm 34:18). In the Gospel, Jesus claims that a tax collector is more justified in his prayer for mercy than the Pharisee, whose prayer was an account of his own righteous deeds. Jesus' point could not have been clearer: tax collectors in the Jewish society of Jesus' day were not just lowly; they were considered outcasts and cheaters. They collected taxes for the hated Romans and almost certainly collected enough to assure a generous income for themselves.

Tax collectors were among society's outcasts; didn't this one just admit his own sinfulness? How could a tax collector be "justified" (that is, made right) before God, while the Pharisee was not? Why would God even listen to the prayer of a tax collector? This surely was a surprise, upsetting common assumptions about righteousness.

2 Thessalonians 1:11-22

Luke 19:1-20

Prayer for Vocations

Father, we're your people, the work of your hands. So precious are we in your sight that you sent your Son, Jesus. Jesus calls us to heal the broken-hearted, to dry the tears of those who mourn, to give hope to those who despair, and to rejoice in your steadfast love. We, the baptized, realize our call to serve. Help us to know how. Call forth from among us priests, sisters, brothers and lay ministers. With our hearts, you continue to love your people. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.

ANNUAL MEMORIAL MASS

We will honor those who have died during this past year between October 2021 thru October 2022 at our Annual Memorial Mass. Parishioners, who have had a death of a loved one and the funeral was NOT at St. Bernardine, if you would like to attend the November 7th Memorial Mass and participate in the Candle Ceremony, please call the Parish Office 818-888-8200 by Friday, November 4th.

Please give the name of your loved one, the date of death, your name, address and phone number. All are invited to come and support our fellow parishioners. They will be most grateful for you for your presence.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

October 23, 2022

This Sunday is World Mission Sunday, the annual Eucharistic celebration for the Missions of the Church. Reflecting on this year's theme: "You shall be My witnesses" (Acts 1:8), Pope Francis emphasizes the call to every Christian to bear witness to Christ, to participate in a mission of universal evangelization, and to seek strength and guidance from the Holy Spirit. Please consider answering that call by participating in prayer and generous sacrifice to the Society for the Propagation of the Faith this weekend. Envelopes are available around the church.

Thank you for your generosity to the Missions in October and year-round.

Gifts for the Spirit Your Parish Gift Shop

Coming in November, the Gift Shop Christmas display of all things Christmas, will be on November 6th in the foyer of the parish center. Christmas Cards, Nativities, Advent candles and Advent wreaths, gifts and much more. Please be our guests and join us for coffee and donuts, and see all things bright and beautiful. It will be the season for loving gifts and to remind us of this day on which we are blessed with the Birth of Christ.

DID YOU KNOW?

Have a Safe and Happy Halloween

With Halloween coming up, here are some safety tips for parents taking little ones trick or treating. Parents should check costumes for safety — be sure that they fit well and will not cause children to trip. Consider adding reflective tape to costumes, shoes, or trick or treat bags to make your children easier to see in the dark. Avoid sharp, long, or otherwise dangerous costume accessories like swords and canes. Also, check candy before children consume it. For more information, read “Halloween Health & Safety Tips” at <https://www.healthychildren.org/English/safety-prevention/all-around/Pages/Halloween-Safety-Tips.aspx>.

1st Friday Mass and Luncheon November 4, 2022

Please join us Friday, Nov 4 for the First Friday luncheon. Chapel service is at 11:30am in the Parish Center Chapel followed by a handmade luncheon in the Parish Center Hall. Be Social & meet FRIENDS!

There is no charge but please bring a food donation item for the Guadalupe Center (canned and dry goods, peanut butter, jelly,...). Any fruits and vegetables from your own garden are always welcome.

If you would like to volunteer, we need help cleaning the dishes after lunch. Please call Janey (818)570-1144 for more info

Prayer Requests

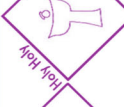

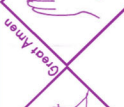

We pray for the sick and remember the intentions of the parish:

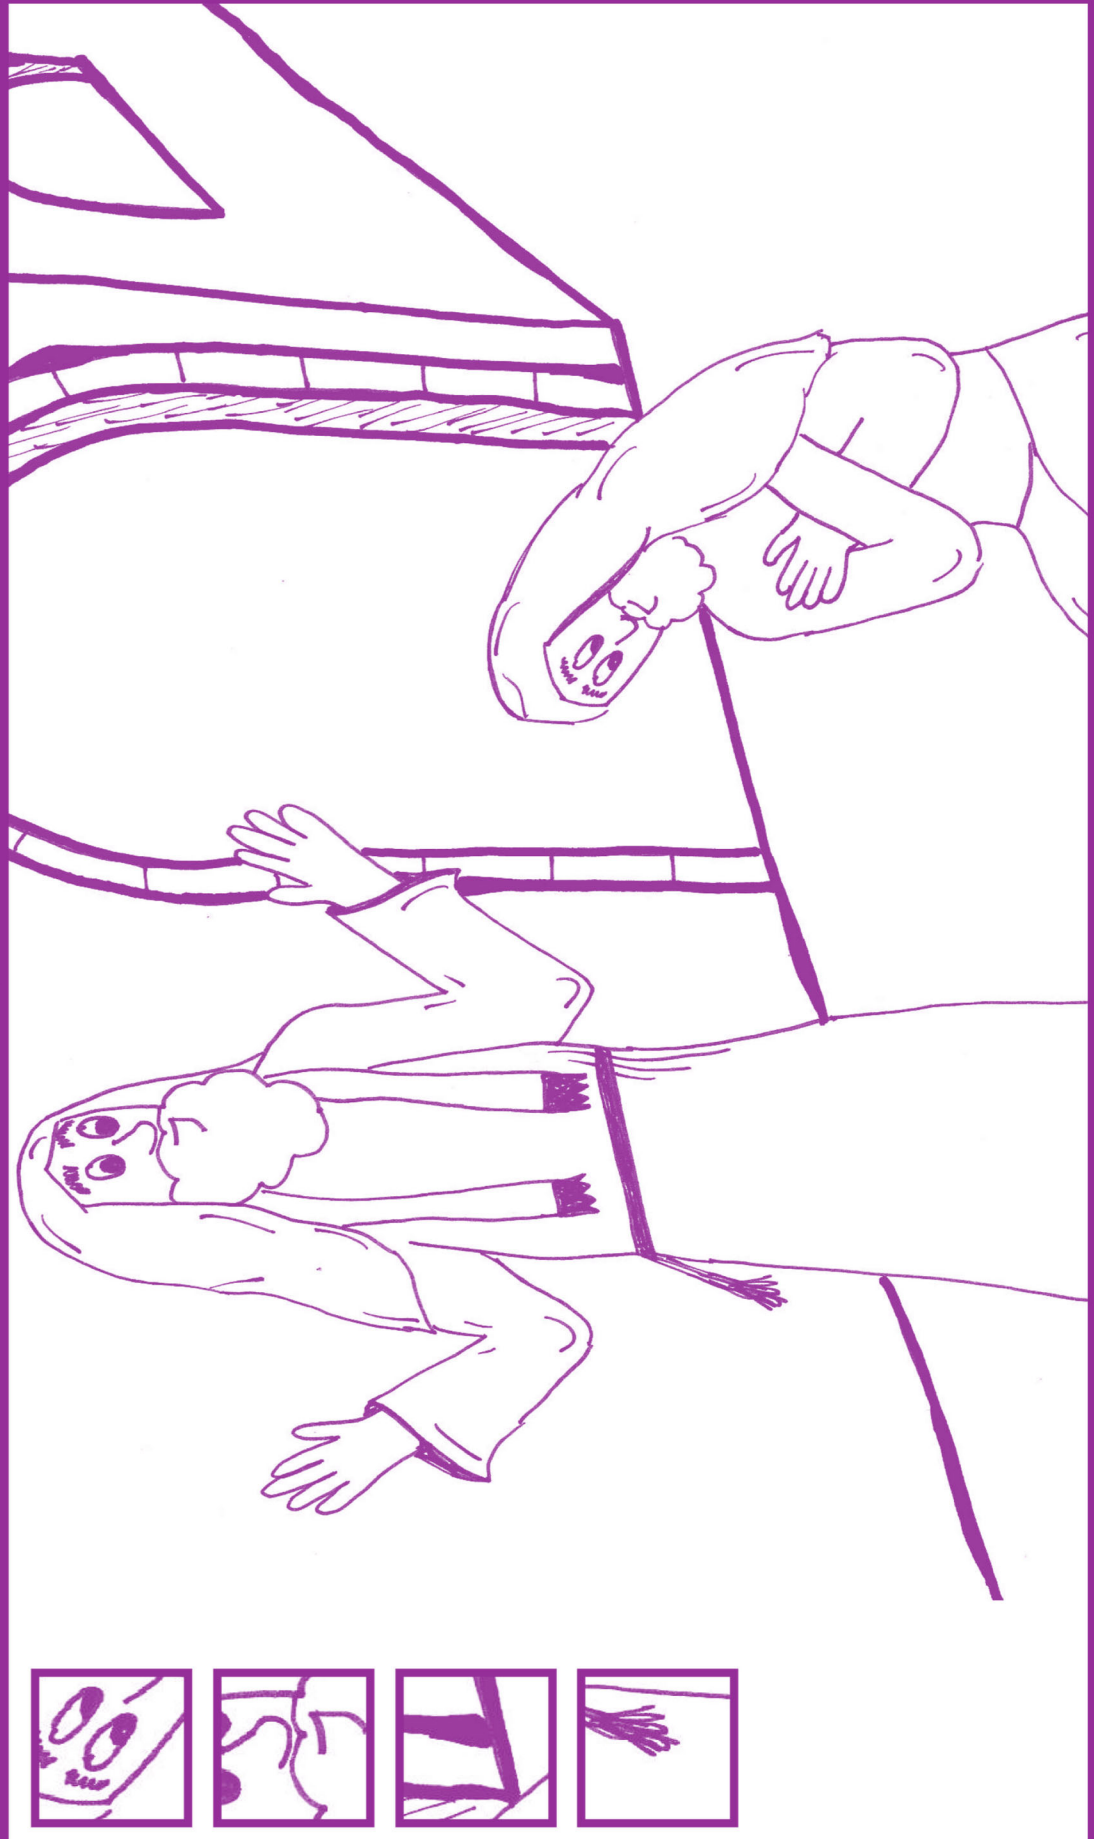

Peggy Pryor; Colleen Mullaney, mother of Sean; Maria Budinger; Stephen Shaffer; Carolyn Wild; Steven Vlasak; Michael Lombardo; Bernardine Gill; Erine Robles; Joe Norton

Please pray for the happy repose of all souls:

Luke Martinez; Angelito Pulido;
Fr. Jim Maher

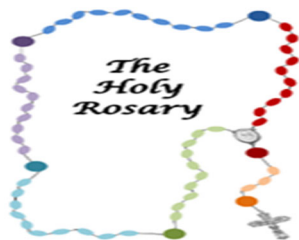

Gospel

Jesus talks about two men praying. One man stands up and tells God about his own greatness. The other man bows his head and asks God for help and prays about God's greatness. The second man is being humble. Jesus asks us to be humble.

Many of our Faith formation children spent this past week learning more about the Rosary because October is known as the month of the Holy Rosary. Holy Mother Mary, pray for us!

The expression "when Jesus was on [the] earth" can have positive and negative interpretations. On the positive side, it reminds us that Jesus is truly human; he has a body that was really here, in space and in time. The negative, however, is that it can make us think that Jesus is not here now. He is indeed here, in the Eucharist. He is undoubtedly in Heaven with the Father, but he is also here with us, as our food. We cannot forget this. Jesus is still here on the earth. Perhaps we could change our saying to "when Jesus walked the earth." That may help us to remember that he is still with us.

BAKING VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Your parish needs volunteers to bake treats to be sold at the Holiday Boutique. In past years, we had different groups host the baked goods table. This year, the Church is hosting this table, so we need parishioners to volunteer and bake or purchase baked goods donations. Either way, we do need ingredients taped/printed to containers, for those who may have food allergies. If you would like to participate, please call Parish Center 818-426-6539 or email ppryor@stbernardine.org

Here's Why You Should Register at St. Bernardine of Siena

To promote a spirit of belonging, we encourage all who worship here to become registered parishioners. Being registered makes the process much easier when it is time for infant baptism, school or religious education enrollment, weddings, when asked to be a baptismal or confirmation sponsor, and funerals. Simply attending Mass here does not make you a registered parishioner.

Registration forms can be found on the St. Bernardine of Siena Website www.stbernardine.org,

or in the Parish Center Office.
