33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time November 13, 2022

Sing praise to the LORD with the harp, with the harp and melodious song.

- Psalm 98:5

THE END OF DAYS

As we prepare for next Sunday's feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, we hear descriptions of dire and catastrophic events. Sometimes, it seems as though we ourselves are living in the end times, when life as we currently know it will cease for everyone. In answer to what must have been a fearful question, Jesus does not sugarcoat his foretelling of future days. Nor does the Old Testament prophet Malachi flinch from his pronouncements upon an evil world. Saint Paul, still writing to the Thessalonians, warns prophetically against succumbing to "The End is Near" syndrome - indolence in the face of the final days. However, both Jesus and Malachi speak of the recompense for living a just life - healing and vindication. Our Psalm 98, typically associated with Christmastime, helps us to rejoice for the King who is coming to rule with justice.

Prayer of the Week

Grant us, we pray, O Lord our God, the constant gladness of being devoted to you, for it is full and lasting happiness to serve with constancy the author of all that is good.

Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

God. for ever and ever.

The Guadalupe Center is seeking to receive donations to help serve families this Thanksgiving holiday. They would greatly appreciate any donations that may include turkeys, canned food, perishable/nonperishable foods, or Thanksgiving meals. All donations received go to serving families in our community.

Thank you advance for your generosity.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

This weekend, we are holding a special collection that supports the Catholic Campaign for Human Development.
Currently 38 million people in the United States live in poverty. This collection funds programs that empower local communities to address the challenges they face. The Catholic Campaign for Human Development supports those living in poverty across the country. Envelopes can be found in the church and at our Parish Office. Please consider giving generously. Thank you.
