DIRECT SUPPORT PROFESSIONAL

Spotlight

Emily Hayes

With a passion for helping others, Emily volunteered in high school in adaptive English and P.E. classes. That experience inspired her to start fitness and movement programs for her friends in the community. She is a new independent provider and has a CrossFit program and a dance program for individuals who receive services!

Her favorite part of being a DSP is seeing people achieve their goals and supporting their future endeavors. She enjoys spending time working on life skills and helping the people she supports to stay active.

In Emily's free time she enjoys CrossFit and helping in the community. She runs multiple adaptive and disability-friendly programs in different locations in Centerville. She also enjoys creative outlets such as drawing and painting.
