2. Tour Difficulty Level – Moderate to Slightly-Difficult. Is this tour right for you?

The tour is not sold or offered as ADA-compliant. Aside from the beautiful sites and lots of fun on the tour, there is important information you should consider:

- Although portage service are provided, you may need to carry your luggage on occasion.
- You will be boarding and getting off the bus 5-6 times per day, during touring days.
- Some of the days will entail several hours of walking on even and uneven pavements or roads, ascend and descend stairs (without railings), walk up or down hills, or stand in place for 20-30 minutes at a time, while listening to the guide's explanations.
- Many of the sites are not designed to accommodate travelers with walking accessories.
- Some people choose to climb into the tunnels in the Pyramids. Keep in mind it may be claustrophobic, and breathing may be difficult (no ventilation).
- In Luxor, visiting the temples in the Valley of the Kings may be claustrophobic due to the many visitors and breathing may be difficult (no ventilation).
- Some of the days will entail bus rides of 2-3 hours.
- Some domestic flights in Egypt are scheduled for early mornings, requiring the group to leave the hotel around 4:00 AM.
- The bus on the tour is not ADA-compliant and may not have a bathroom. It is air-conditioned.
- It is possible to skip sites and stay on the bus or in the hotel, but there will be no refund for unused entrance fees.
- Temperatures will likely be in the 70's-80's during the daytime, depending on location. Evenings will likely be in the 50's – 60's.
- Smoking is commonplace, including indoors at hotels and restaurants (not on the cruise).
- Cairo may have a "blanket" of smog in the morning, usually clearing by midday.
- Souvenir peddlers at tourist sites can be aggressive (learn to say "no").
- Food allergies will be noted and forwarded but may not be properly addressed.
- Medical facilities are available in large cities but are limited in remote areas.

3. To register for the tour:

Registration for the tour is open via the dedicated, secure form available on the tour website. The upfront pay now costs are:

8. Travel Insurance:

Travel insurance is highly recommended (but not mandatory) to cover unexpected circumstances or losses. Find more information on the Scopia LLC website.

Note that there may be benefits to purchasing the policy within 14 days of making the initial payment on the tour (such as a deposit). These benefits may include waiver of pre-existing medical conditions exclusion and optional add-ons.

Scopia LLC cannot advise you about which policy to purchase or optional coverages. For questions, please contact the insurance company directly.

Scopia LLC serves only as an agent of the insurance company for the purpose of offering participants the option of purchasing insurance. Any decisions about claims are at the sole discretion of the insurance company. Scopia LLC can provide participants with available documentation to support a claim.

Offered travel insurance plans provide insurance coverage that only applies during the covered trip. You may have coverage from other sources that provides you with similar benefits but may be subject to different restrictions depending upon your other coverages. You may wish to compare the terms of this policy with your existing life, health, home, and automobile insurance policies. If you have any questions about your current coverage, call your insurer or insurance agent or broker.
