Best Insurance Agency!

The awesome Wallin Insurance team, just missing, Annie, Sydney, Sarah and Sharon.

Awesome Kyle

You voted your fingers off and made Wallin Insurance the winner of both Best Insurance Agency in the Twin Tiers and the Best Insurance Agent in the Twin Tiers, Kyle Brautigian.

"I scratch a lotto ticket here and there, and I don't win. I play some roulette at the casino, and I usually never come out ahead. I'm a New York Jets fan; even my sports team doesn't win! So when I found out I was honored as the Best Insurance Agent in the Twin Tiers, I almost fell over! I work every day with an amazing group of people and THE BEST clients, and it motivates me to be better every day.

"This is an industry where things can be hard to understand. I believe in honest, straight-forward communication with clients. I interact with clients the way I like to be interacted with when I am the customer.

"The relationships I build make me love what I do, so thank you for the award. The feeling is mutual. I appreciate the loyalty and trust so many have given me over the years. I will never take it for granted."
-- Kyle Brautigian, Licensed Agent

We Love Our Community

“With Wallin Insurance, you’ve got a friend in the business ... and a friend in the community. We love living in this area!”

– Peter Wallin, Owner

We love our firefighters! We all know firefighters cook together family style -- The meals always look so good on TV! Well, we wanted our firefighters to have some good meals on us, so we sent the Elmira Fire Department food and grocery store gift cards for Thanksgiving and Christmas. It’s the least we could do for these awesome heroes.

DID YOU KNOW?

Pet insurance started in Sweden, with the first policy for a dog issued in 1924. The first policy in the U.S. was issued for famous TV-dog Lassie in 1982, and, in 1997, all dogs and cats in the U.S. became insurable. Pet Insurance is now a global, multibillion-dollar industry covering accidents, illnesses, and even wellness, with strong growth expected worldwide.

Reminder: Your homeowners insurance does not cover that business.

Most homeowners policies offer limited or no coverage for business-related property, liability or operations. If you run a business from home, you likely need a home-based business endorsement or a separate business owners policy. Good news! These endorsements and policies are generally priced competitively for small businesses and are worth the peace of mind. Contact us to discuss your options. We will happily do so!

WALLI'S WISE WORDS

Remember to reassess your insurance during life transitions and major milestones, not only to ensure you're adequately protected, but also to see if you qualify for new discounts. These key life transitions and major milestones can include getting married, having a baby, sending kids to college, buying a home, starting a business or starting a new job. Contact us to help you re-evaluate your coverage.
