Are You Overlooking the Little Things in Your Insurance?

Timely Advice from Agency Owner Peter Wallin

Insurance isn't just about having a policy -- it's about making sure the right protections are in place. We often find that clients miss a few important (but easily overlooked) details in their coverage.

Take a moment to go through this quick checklist You might be surprised at what needs a second look.

- Do you have Rental Car coverage?
- Do you carry Sewer and Drain coverage?
- Do you carry Underground Utility Line coverage?
- Do you have Identity Theft coverage?
- Are all household drivers listed on your policy?
- Have you taken the Defensive Driving course?

If you answered "No" or "Not sure" to any of the above, it might be time for a quick policy review.

We're here to help. Contact our office to discuss your coverage or to schedule a personalized review.

And don't forget to ask for a free copy of Peter's book, "Insure Your Peace of Mind."

Let's make sure your insurance is working as hard as you do. After all, with Wallin Insurance, you've got a friend in the business.

DID YOU KNOW

If your home is damaged by falling waste from an airplane, you’re covered! Occasionally “blue ice” -- which is frozen toilet waste -- from an airplane lavatory will fall out of a plane and hit a roof. But now you can rest easy knowing that -- while completely gross -- it’s covered.

Every business needs to consider adding Cyber Insurance to their insurance package. The pandemic forced many companies to adapt their operations, moving more of their business operations online and remote -- making them easier targets for cyber criminals. Even companies with a small digital profile must take proactive steps to protect business and customer data from ransomware, phishing attacks and data breaches. Cyber Liability Insurance offers comprehensive protection for financial liability due to a cybercrime. Should we talk? Reach out to our Commercial Lines Team

DO YOU REMEMBER THE COW ON OUR ROOF?

Back in the day, the building where Wallin Insurance is located used to be a dairy and there was a metal cow on the roof as decoration. In 1963, the dairy held a contest to Name the Cow. No, we do not know who won or what the winning name was. Do you? Feel free to send us a message. So cool!
