

Farmington Community Garden

Vision

Farmington Community Garden will be a community space where citizens have plots of their own to grow fruits, vegetables, herbs and flowers for their family. The garden will feature an edible landscape and children's garden that is open to the public.

Gardeners will gain and/or share their knowledge of naturally grown gardening with fellow gardeners as they work alongside each other on their own raised bed(s) and in the shared spaces.

