WRITTEN IN STONE: Giving Respect

As we continue our series, "Written in Stone," we will see how the Commandments shift our focus from loving God to loving others. In the Fourth Commandment, God begins this new focus by calling us to give respect and honor to every form of authority He has established. This weekend, we will look specifically at our parents and consider how we are called to honor and respect them as though we were honoring and respecting God Himself.

See you in worship this weekend!

Kids for a Cause Market

Join us this Sunday, July 26, during the 11am service for our Kids for a Cause Market. Our Redeemer Kids have been working hard this summer to make items to raise money for a mission of their choosing. Please stop by room 102 during the 11am service to see all their fun creations! Freewill donations would be graciously accepted but are not necessary.

Heading back to school this fall? We'll be praying over you at each of our Sunday services on August 16.
