

The Hand that Pours

NorthRidge Church

Dr. M. David Myers

November 2, 2025

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup OVERFLOWS. – Psalm 23:5

This Psalm was ...

- Written by _____
- Written about _____
- Written for _____

The Hand that Pours ...

1. The Lord is a _____ ...

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. – Psalm 23:1

- A _____ Relationship
- _____ Resources

2. The Lord is a _____ ...

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil. – Psalm 23:4

- _____ in the Valley
- A _____ in the Valley

3. The Lord is a _____ ...

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. – Psalm 23:5

- The _____
- The _____

So What?

God is a loving Shepherd who provides, who guides, who protects, and who cares for His people. Even in the darkest times, there is no reason to fear because God's presence brings comfort, abundance, and eternal security. While He is The Shepherd, the question is ...

Is He _____?

How are things between _____ and _____ Today?

Appointment with God – Prayer Focus

NEHEMIAH MINISTRIES

We look at the craziness of the world around us. The question comes to mind, "Can God rebuild what appears to be irreparably broken?" The book of Nehemiah reveals HOW God works so we can respond with an emphatic, "YES, He can!"

If our hearts don't break for what breaks God's heart, we will never be pushed to pray the way we should. When Nehemiah heard that the walls and gates of Jerusalem were destroyed, he MOURNED for many days. He didn't judge the city for its broken walls. He fasted. He prayed.

- Nehemiah prayed prayers of ADORATION—focusing on God's greatness, power, and mercy. How He's faithful to keep His covenant to us. How He hears our prayers.
- Nehemiah then prayed prayers of CONFESSION—his sins and sins of others...sin that separates us from God and from others. He gave no excuses and didn't try to justify the sin.
- Nehemiah also prayed prayers of SUPPLICATION—asking that God's people would be heard and that He would be merciful.

For God to rebuild what appears to be irreparably broken, He looks for a heart that breaks over conditions around us [Neh. 1:3-4a], whether it be the state of our nation, a family crisis, or _____. That is His invitation for us to seek Him and pray, recognizing our powerlessness and our dependence on Him. God uses people who see the world through His tears; May we be as Nehemiah and say, "Use me, Lord."

LET'S BE NEHEMIAHS!

- Ask God to break your heart for what breaks His. Ask to KNOW how much we need HIM to rebuild and restore. [Neh. 1:3-4]
 - What looks irreparably broken?
 - Ask God to open your eyes to see if He created you for such a time as this...to be used by Him.
- Pray and fast. Seek the Lord.

YOU ARE INVITED!

Nehemiah asked God to hear his prayers and the prayers of His servants, implying they prayed individually and with others [Neh. 1:11].

We invite you to come, seeking the Lord with brothers and sisters in Christ, on Wednesdays at 5:00 pm in the conference room. Let's pray for restoration and revival that only God can bring.

The Hand that Pours

NorthRidge Church

Dr. M. David Myers

November 2, 2025

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; you anoint my head with oil; my cup OVERFLOWS. – Psalm 23:5

This Psalm was ...

- Written by King David
- Written about Christ
- Written for Christians

The Hand that Pours ...

1. The Lord is a Loving Shepherd ...

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. – Psalm 23:1

- A Personal Relationship
- Pastoral Resources

2. The Lord is a Faithful Companion ...

Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil. – Psalm 23:4

- Courage in the Valley
- A Companion in the Valley

3. The Lord is a Gracious Host ...

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. – Psalm 23:5

- The Victory Celebration
- The Abiding Communion

So What?

God is a loving Shepherd who provides, who guides, who protects, and who cares for His people. Even in the darkest times, there is no reason to fear because God's presence brings comfort, abundance, and eternal security. While He is The Shepherd, the question is ...

Is He Your Shepherd?

How are things between You and Jesus Today?

Appointment with God – Prayer Focus

NEHEMIAH MINISTRIES

We look at the craziness of the world around us. The question comes to mind, “Can God rebuild what appears to be irreparably broken?” The book of Nehemiah reveals HOW God works so we can respond with an emphatic, “YES, He can!”

If our hearts don't break for what breaks God's heart, we will never be pushed to pray the way we should. When Nehemiah heard that the walls and gates of Jerusalem were destroyed, he MOURNED for many days. He didn't judge the city for its broken walls. He fasted. He prayed.

- Nehemiah prayed prayers of ADORATION—focusing on God's greatness, power, and mercy. How He's faithful to keep His covenant to us. How He hears our prayers.
- Nehemiah then prayed prayers of CONFESSION—his sins and sins of others...sin that separates us from God and from others. He gave no excuses and didn't try to justify the sin.
- Nehemiah also prayed prayers of SUPPLICATION—asking that God's people would be heard and that He would be merciful.

For God to rebuild what appears to be irreparably broken, He looks for a heart that breaks over conditions around us [Neh. 1:3-4a], whether it be the state of our nation, a family crisis, or _____. That is His invitation for us to seek Him and pray, recognizing our powerlessness and our dependence on Him. God uses people who see the world through His tears; May we be as Nehemiah and say, “Use me, Lord.”

LET'S BE NEHEMIAHS!

- Ask God to break your heart for what breaks His. Ask to KNOW how much we need HIM to rebuild and restore. [Neh. 1:3-4]
 - What looks irreparably broken?
 - Ask God to open your eyes to see if He created you for such a time as this...to be used by Him.
- Pray and fast. Seek the Lord.

YOU ARE INVITED!

Nehemiah asked God to hear his prayers and the prayers of His servants, implying they prayed individually and with others [Neh. 1:11].

We invite you to come, seeking the Lord with brothers and sisters in Christ, on Wednesdays at 5:00 pm in the conference room. Let's pray for restoration and revival that only God can bring.