

Colorado Rush Welcomes Travis McCorkle as Assistant Director of Coaching

Colorado Rush North is excited to announce the hiring of Travis McCorkle as our new Assistant Director of Coaching.

Travis brings an extensive background in youth and collegiate soccer coaching, player development, and leadership development to the Rush North community. Throughout his coaching career, he has built a reputation for creating positive, competitive environments focused on helping players grow both on and off the field.

In addition to his youth club experience, Travis served as the head women's soccer coach at Angelo State University, where he became the winningest coach in program history. During his tenure, he led the program to four Lone Star Conference Championships, multiple NCAA Tournament appearances, and numerous 10-plus win seasons. Under his leadership, Angelo State achieved several program milestones, including hosting NCAA Regional competition and earning national recognition at the Division II level.

Travis was also recognized for his success and leadership at the collegiate level, earning Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year honors multiple times during his career. In 2020, he and his staff were named Regional and National Staff of the Year following another outstanding season for the Rambelles program.

In his new role, Travis will support coaching education, player development initiatives, club programming, and overall growth within Rush North. He will work closely with directors, coaches, players, and families to continue elevating the standard and experience throughout the club.

"We are excited to welcome Travis to the Rush family," said John Carroll, Colorado Rush President/CEO. "He brings a tremendous amount of experience, professionalism, and passion for youth development. His vision for the game and commitment to building strong relationships align perfectly with the culture we continue to build at Rush North."

Please join us in welcoming Travis McCorkle to Colorado Rush North as we look forward to an exciting future ahead.
