My suggested name for the Ruthwell mouse

Hello, I'm The Ruthwell Cross mouse, I've been sleeping on the side of The Cross for over 1,300 years! It's been so long that I've forgotten what my name is, so I need your help to select a new one.

I'm holding a competition and the winning entry will get a prize.

Write your name suggestion for me in the box above and colour in my picture before getting an adult to send a photo or scan of your submission through our website:

ruthwellcross.com/competition

Entries need to be submitted by Wednesday 9 September 2026.

All your entries will be displayed in the Church to celebrate the arrival of a painted replica of The Ruthwell Cross at a special service on Sunday 13 September at 6:30pm. It looks just how I remember The Cross before I fell asleep! It would be lovely if you and your family could join us for the service.
