Fundraising Myth-Busting

Tax Receipts are the prime motivator for a gift

People genuinely like to give

The largest source of gifts to charity is corporations

Special events are the most effective way to raise money

You must give before you can ask

A person's wealth is the best predictor of getting a gift

There is one "right way" to ask

All gifts are important

People Giving to People = Fundraising

*Donors don't give to institutions.
They invest in ideas and people in whom they believe.*

- G.T. Smith

In good times and bad, we know that people give because you meet needs, not because you have needs.

- Kay Sprinkel Grace

Fundraising is the gentle art of teaching people the joy of giving.

How you Communicate Matters!

Donors want to help solve problems

Donor investors want to help solve problems. What solutions does your organization offer?

Good cases focus on the future – what will be different? How will a donor's investment make a difference?

Cases must be motivational, persuasive, emotion based.

They are not giving to this, at least not initially

Memphis Child Advocacy Center

Helping Victims Become Children Again

They are giving to this “Old school building, good bones, desperately seeks your help to make dreams come true.”

FOR WOMEN AND GIRLS IN RHODE ISLAND,

THE PLAYING FIELD ISN'T LEVEL YET.

BUT IT COULD BE, WITH YOUR HELP.

Linkage

How can you link the donor back to your organization? Have they made a gift in the past, are they a volunteer, or a recipient of your programs?

Interest

Do your donor's interests align with your organization's mission?

Ability

Does the donor have the wealth or capacity to give a significant gift now?

A large, reflective disco ball is the central focus of the image. It is covered in many small, square mirrors that reflect light in various colors, including blue, purple, and pink. The ball is suspended by a metal ring and chain from the top. The background is a solid, vibrant purple color.

Special Events

..that are not so special, such your time, burn through volunteers and don't raise much money

Fundraising Events

Have more than one GOAL for your event:

1. Raise money
2. Cultivate new community members (Friend-raising)
3. Recognize volunteers and donors
4. Build awareness (how will you measure? # new signups to e-newsletter, new visitors?)

Are you running a fundraising event, or a community engagement event?

USE THE BUDGET TEMPLATE TO FIND OUT

Be clear which one it is, and make sure that your Board is clear too.

Strategies for Success:

What to ask for...and how

ALL VOLUNTEERS
WANT
TO HELP.
NOT ALL VOLUNTEERS KNOW HOW

Build your wish list

WISH LIST

Wouldn't it be wonderful if Drop and Listen
Let them know the need
I am looking for....
Do you know anyone who...

Ambassadors, Advocates, Askers – everyone has a different comfort level.

PEOPLE WHO CAN HELP

Who can help me?
Don't assume Seek advice if you can't ask...yet
How would you like to get involved in X (assumptive engagement)
Small asks and baby steps

Be specific. Respect the relationship (ask for big things from people you've known for a long time, and baby steps from new people. Build the relationship)

Don't overwhelm.

Special Events

What's your objective?

SOLICITATION

Cash

CULTIVATION

Prospects, sponsors, maintain
interest

THANK YOU

Recognition at public event

The best events are the ones that will address all three!

Sponsorship:

Transaction with a Business Marketing Lens

Linkage

How can you link the company back to your organization? Have they made a gift in the past, are they a volunteer, or a recipient of your programs?

Interest

Does your company's interests align with your organization's mission?

Ability

Does the company have the wealth or capacity to give a significant gift now?

Keep it Simple

1. Focus on Marketing and Visibility Benefits for Company
2. Build Relationships that are personal and sustainable
3. Offer different levels of sponsorship
  - a) Signature Sponsor
  - b) Program Sponsor
  - c) Table/Drink/Event Sponsor
4. Find multi-year partners (if possible)
5. Confirm agreements with a simple sponsorship template
6. Include follow-up post-event through a sponsorship fulfillment report
7. Renew early for next year
