The Crematory requires either a casket or an alternative (cremation) container for the cremation. Please refer to the attached form for further details regarding the caskets/containers.

REPRESENTATIONS OF FUNERAL DIRECTOR

I warrant, to the best of my knowledge, that I have reviewed this form with the Authorizing Agent(s), that no member of our Funeral Home, has any knowledge or information that would lead us to believe that any of the answers provided by the Authorizing Agent(s) are incorrect, that the human remains delivered to the Crematory and represented as the human remains that we identified to our Funeral Home as the Decedent, that our Funeral Home obtained all the necessary permits authorizing the cremation and those permits are attached and that the representations concerning a pacemaker and other materials or implants that may be potentially hazardous are true.

ADDITIONAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS

THE CREMATION PROCESS

Cremation is performed to prepare the deceased for memorialization and it is carried out by placing the deceased in a casket or alternative container and then placing the casket or alternative container into a cremation chamber, or retort, where they are subjected to intense heat and flame. During the cremation process, it may be necessary to open the cremation chamber and reposition the deceased in order to facilitate a complete and thorough cremation. Through the use of a suitable fuel, incineration of the container and its contents is accomplished by raising the temperature substantially (extreme temperature) and all substances are consumed or driven off, except bone fragments (calcium compounds) and metal (including dental gold and silver and other non-human materials) as temperature is not sufficient to consume them.

Due to the nature of the cremation process, any personal possession or valuable materials such as dental gold and silver, or jewelry (as well as any body prostheses or dental bridgework) that are left with the Decedent and not removed from the casket or container prior to cremation may be destroyed and become non-recoverable. If not destroyed, the Crematory, is authorized to dispose of such materials at its sole discretion. The Authorizing Agent understands the arrangements must be made with the Funeral Home to remove any such possessions or valuables prior to the time that the Decedent is transported to the Crematory.

Following a cooling period, the cremated remains, which will normally weigh several pounds in the case of an average-size adult, are then swept or raked from the cremation chamber. The Crematory makes a reasonable effort to remove all of the cremated remains from the cremation chamber, but it is impossible to remove all of them, as some dust and other residue from the process are always left behind. In addition, while every reasonable effort will be made to avoid commingling, inadvertent or incidental commingling of minute particles of cremated remains from the residue of previous cremation is a possibility, and the Authorizing Agent understands and accepts this fact.

After the cremated remains are removed from the cremation chamber, all non-combustible materials such as orthopedic implants, dental prosthetics, surgical pins, screws, casket hardware, etc. will be separated and removed from the bone fragments by visible or magnetic selection. The crematory is authorized to recycle these metals through a non-profit crematory recycling program organized and operated exclusively to generate financial support for crematory/funeral home's charity of choice.

When the cremated remains are removed from the cremation chamber, the skeletal remains often contain recognizable bone fragments. Unless otherwise specified, after the bone fragments have been separated from the other material, they will be mechanically processed (pulverized), which includes crushing or grinding and incidental commingling of the remains with the residue from the processing of previously cremated remains, into granulated particles of unidentifiable dimensions, virtually unrecognizable as human remains, prior to placement into the designated container.

CASKETS/CONTAINERS

The above named Funeral Home does not offer metal caskets for cremation.

All caskets and alternative containers must meet the following standards:

1. Be composed of materials suitable for cremation;
2. Be able to be closed to provide a complete covering for the human remains;
3. Be sufficient for handling with ease;
4. Be resistant to leakage or spillage;
5. Be able to provide protection for the health and safety of crematory personnel.

The Crematory is authorized to inspect the casket or alternative container, including opening it if necessary. In the event there is leakage or damage, the Crematory may contact the Authorizing Agent directly for instructions. The Crematory reserves the right to open the container to verify the identity of the deceased.

Many caskets that are comprised of combustible materials also contain some exterior parts, e.g., decorative handles or rails, that are not combustible and that may cause damage to the cremation equipment. The Crematory, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to remove these noncombustible materials prior to cremation and to discard them with similar materials from other cremations and other refuse in a non-recoverable manner.

URNS/TEMPORARY CONTAINERS

In the event the urn or other container selected is insufficient to accommodate all of the cremated remains, the excess will be placed in a separate receptacle. The separate receptacle will be kept with the primary receptacle and handled according to the disposition instructions on this form. Crematory requires that all urns or containers provided be appropriate for shipping or permanent storage, and that in the case of an adult, it is recommended that the urn or container be a minimum of 200 cubic inches. Unless a suitable urn is provided for the cremated remains, the Crematory will place the cremated remains in a container furnished by the Crematory which is not designed for shipment.

FINAL DISPOSITION

Cremation is NOT the final disposition as far as the funeral home is concerned, nor is placing the cremated remains in storage at a Funeral Home final disposition. The cremation process simply reduces the decedent's body to cremated remains. These cremated remains usually weigh several pounds and are usually in excess of 150 cubic inches. Some provision must be made for the final disposition of these cremated remains. If the option selected for final disposition includes scattering, then the cremated remains will not be recoverable. If scattering is performed in a common area, then the cremated remains may be commingled with parties of other cremated remains that have been previously scattered.

RECYCLING DISCLOSURE

There are certain items, including but not limited to, jewelry, hinges, latches, nails, body implants (medical and non medical) and prostheses, dentures, dental bridgework, dental fillings, and other personal articles accompanying the deceased that may be destroyed during the cremation process. All personal possessions or valuable materials, such as jewelry, dental gold, etc., if so desired, should be removed prior to cremation. If not removed, any such items will be destroyed during the cremation process. Removal of dental gold/ work or any other invasive procedure will require the purchaser to hire a professional to remove/obtain prior to cremation.

After the cremation process is completed, the cremated remains are removed from the cremation chamber, and all non-combustible material will be separated and removed from the cremated human remains by visible or magnetic selection, insomuch as is possible.

Effort will be made to remove all of the cremated human remains from the remaining metallic material (if any). However, it is impossible to remove 100% of cremated remains from any metallic residue from the cremation process, thus a small amount of residue, or dust, may remain on the remaining metallic material left over after cremation.

I/We authorize the Funeral Home/Crematory to separate any such remaining non-biological items from the cremated human remains of the deceased and dispose of these items, if any, as Funeral Home/Crematory sees fit, including, but not limited to packaging and shipping the items to be recycled, in compliance with state and Federal law.

I/We further acknowledge that Funeral Home/Crematory will receive compensation for its efforts to recover and ship the material for recycling, when applicable and permissible by law, and that the family will receive no remuneration from recycling. This compensation can be used to maintain crematory equipment or will be donated to local charities in the community that the Funeral Home/ Crematory serves.
