Catechism Corner by Kacey Carey, DRE

Scripture says, "Rejoice in the Lord Always!" -Phil. 4:4. And "Joy of the Lord is my strength" -Nehemiah 8:10. But how can one be joyful all the time, especially when one is attacked with negativity and things go wrong in life? A simple pneumatic device for JOY is Jesus, Others and Yourself. Putting Jesus first makes everything else fall into place. Putting others before ourselves means we treat our neighbors as we would like to be treated. Considering ourselves in last place means we take what is left and we are content knowing that we have done the will of God. Why is joy so important? Joy guards our energy and refreshes our souls. It attracts others to us, like a bright light in a dark room. Conversely anger, resentment and misery rob us of joy and make us tired, anxious and depressed. The evil one wants us to dwell on all the mean, spiteful remarks others have said about us. He wants us to cave in and wallow in self-pity and resentment. In discouragement, our faith can be shaken. When we cast aside our natural tendency to let negativity take over, we are putting God ahead of everything else. We can choose to be joyful, happy and energetic despite whatever else is happening around us. In the gospel today, we see the forerunner of Christ, John the Baptist, preparing the way for the Lord. John is the turning point between the Old Covenant and the New. But like all Jews of the day, John thought that the Messiah would be a conquering hero, overpowering the occupying Roman armies. But Jesus came to spiritually and physically heal, share the good news and overcome the evil of faithlessness. He did not have a conquering army, only simple souls who overcame the trials of life by trusting in Him. He came to restore us to fullness of life. "Only he who made man makes man happy." St. Augustine.

-All students are welcome to feed the homeless on Tuesday, Dec.23 in the hall from 9am-200pm.

-Catechism classes will resume Jan.10 and Confirmation classes will resume Jan. 6 so all students can share time with their families.

 NOTICIAS DE ED RELIGIOSA *****

-Las clases de Confirmación de este martes ayudarán a organizar las Posadas que se celebran durante la misa, mostrando sus habilidades como acomodadores, monaguillos, leyendo las oraciones de los fieles y llevando las ofrendas al altar. A diferencia de otras parroquias, están aprendiendo las obras de misericordia corporales y espirituales mediante este enfoque práctico.

Todos los estudiantes están invitados a alimentar a las personas sin hogar el martes 23 de diciembre en el salón de 9:00am a 2:00pm.

Las clases de Catecismo se reanudarán el 10 de enero y las de Confirmación el 6 de enero para que todos los estudiantes puedan compartir tiempo con sus familias.
