Catechism Corner by Kacey Carey, DRE

How do we know if the seed planted in our youth is still viable? Our faith will be evidenced by increased prayer, hope and opportunities for God to work in our lives. Many come to Catholicism late in life after falling away and never "getting it" in the first place. We can blame poor or lack of catechesis, no reinforcement at home or busyness with cares of the world. Some of us don't wake up until we are in crisis, but then it is with a vengeance. We reawaken our faith planted years prior. We delve deep into joining multiple prayer groups, attending mass frequently and "witnessing" to others how our faith saved us. But much of this fervor can be wasted if not taken slowly, allowing the word of God to penetrate our souls. Today's gospel speaks to the various ways God tries to reach us. But in all plantings, if not in good soil, the seed is wasted. Consider a garden where plants are clustered together providing support and nourishment to each other. Whether youngsters, teens or older, when we are in a community, we thrive better. We can share our testimonies and struggles with God within a supportive group. This builds a solid foundation as trials besiege us because we can share our burdens with those who have also experienced similar trials. When we make prayer an integral part of our lives, we are actively planting seeds of faith daily as we share our hopes, dreams and burdens with God and one another. We sow trust and reliance on him. This growing reliance over time, provides us with the hope and strength needed to navigate our relationship with him and life's challenges.

"But the seed sown on rich soil, is the one who hears the word and understands it, who indeed bears fruit and yields a hundred, or sixty or thirty fold." St. Matthew 13: 23

Rincón de Catecismo por Kacey Carey, DRE

¿Cómo sabemos si la semilla sembrada en nuestra juventud sigue siendo viable? Nuestra fe se manifestará a través de una mayor oración, esperanza y oportunidades para que Dios actúe en nuestras vidas. Muchos llegan al catolicismo en una etapa avanzada de la vida, tras haberse alejado o sin haber llegado a comprenderlo realmente en un principio. Podemos atribuir esto a una catequesis deficiente o inexistente, a la falta de refuerzo en el hogar o a estar demasiado ocupados con las preocupaciones del mundo. Algunos no despertamos hasta que nos encontramos en medio de una crisis, pero entonces lo hacemos con gran intensidad. Reactivamos la fe que fue sembrada años atrás. Nos volcamos en participar en diversos grupos de oración, asistir a misa con frecuencia y dar testimonio a los demás de cómo nuestra fe nos salvó. Sin embargo, gran parte de este fervor puede desperdiciarse si no avanzamos con calma, permitiendo que la Palabra de Dios penetre en nuestras almas. El Evangelio de hoy nos habla de las diversas formas en que Dios intenta llegar a nosotros. Pero, en cualquier siembra, si la semilla no cae en buena tierra, se pierde. Pensemos en un jardín donde las plantas crecen agrupadas, brindándose apoyo y alimento mutuo. Ya seamos jóvenes, adolescentes o mayores, prosperamos mejor cuando formamos parte de una comunidad. En un grupo que nos brinda apoyo, podemos compartir con Dios nuestros testimonios y luchas. Esto construye un fundamento sólido para cuando nos asedian las pruebas, pues podemos compartir nuestras cargas con quienes han atravesado dificultades similares. Cuando hacemos de la oración una parte integral de nuestra vida, sembramos activamente semillas de fe cada día al compartir nuestras esperanzas, sueños y cargas con Dios y con los demás. Sembramos confianza y dependencia en Él. Esta dependencia, que crece con el tiempo, nos aporta la esperanza y la fortaleza necesarias para vivir nuestra relación con Él y afrontar los desafíos de la vida.

«Pero la semilla sembrada en tierra buena es aquel que escucha la Palabra y la comprende; este ciertamente da fruto y produce el ciento, el sesenta o el treinta por uno». San Mateo 13, 23
