15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight." - Lk 10:30b-31, 33

Catechism Corner by Kacey Carey, DRE

Jesus told stories to his disciples and all others to bring home a simple point. The parable of the Good Samaritan is significant because it challenges the conventional understanding of who is truly a "neighbor". It demonstrates that true neighborliness extends beyond social, religious or ethnic boundaries. Compassion should be shown to anyone in need, rather than to just those considered worthy. Recall that Samaritans were historically despised because they defiled the bloodline, the land, and were guilty of idolatry. But this parable demonstrates that a Samaritan is more God-fearing than a priest or a Levite of the priestly tribe of Levites. It shows the true meaning of love for one's neighbor.

The parable of the Good Samaritan is so topical now with the conflict between Israel and Palestine. Modern day Samaria is part Palestinian and part Israel, located in the center of Israel, called the West Bank. It is so ironic that these once peaceful nations are rekindling the age old hatred of each other. As Jesus frequently said, "It is not what goes into a man that defiles him; but what comes from him in word and action." Just being "good enough" is not enough to get us into heaven. Like the priest and the Levite, our actions must be consistent with who we say we are. If we proclaim our belief in Christ, we must show mercy even to those to whom it may not be deserved.

"There is good without evil, but there is nothing evil without good." St. Thomas Aquinas

Rincón de Catecismo por Kacey Carey, DRE

Jesús contó historias a sus discípulos y a todos los demás para recalcar una idea sencilla. La parábola del Buen Samaritano es significativa porque desafía la comprensión convencional de quién es verdaderamente un "prójimo". Demuestra que la verdadera vecindad trasciende las fronteras sociales, religiosas o étnicas. La compasión debe mostrarse a cualquiera que la necesite, no solo a quienes se consideran dignos. Recordemos que los samaritanos fueron históricamente despreciados porque profanaron el linaje, la tierra y eran culpables de idolatría. Pero esta parábola demuestra que un samaritano es más temeroso de Dios que un sacerdote o un levita de la tribu sacerdotal de los levitas. Muestra el verdadero significado del amor al prójimo.

La parábola del Buen Samaritano cobra gran actualidad hoy en día con el conflicto entre Israel y Palestina. La Samaria actual es en parte palestina y en parte israelí, ubicada en el centro de Israel, llamada Cisjordania. Es irónico que estas naciones, antaño pacíficas, estén reavivando el antiguo odio mutuo. Como dijo Jesús con frecuencia: «No es lo que entra en el hombre lo que lo contamina, sino lo que sale de él en palabras y acciones». Ser simplemente «suficientemente bueno» no basta para entrar al cielo. Al igual que el sacerdote y el levita, nuestras acciones deben ser coherentes con quienes decimos ser. Si proclamamos nuestra fe en Cristo, debemos mostrar misericordia incluso a quienes quizás no la merezcan.

«Hay bien sin mal, pero no hay mal sin bien». Santo Tomás de Aquino
