Catechism Corner by Kacey Carey, DRE

Despite Peter chosen as the first Pope and later , Paul the apostle to the Gentiles, there were many differences between the two men. Although varied in background and experience, they were like two brothers bound together by the gospel of which they were both messengers, missionaries and depositories. They historically had a "brotherly" clash in which Paul disagreed with Peter. The conflict revolved around whether or not people needed to convert to Judaism (and circumcision) before they could become Christians. We celebrate the feast days of both together as complimentary today. Peter and Paul are considered founders of the Church in Rome having been martyred separately during Herod's reign. But Peter rightly answered the big question of Jesus : "Who do you say that I am?" Peter answered "You are the Christ, the Son of the living God." Jesus then bestows a great gift granting preeminence to Peter in response. "You are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." This last gift of Jesus allows the establishment of a Church as a steadfast sign for our challenging times. Christ's main reason for living was to die on the cross for each of us, so that we gain our inheritance and rise to meet the many challenges and trials facing us.

"As the highest pastoral and doctrinal authority, the pope watches over the transmission of the true faith." {936-937 CCC}

Rincón de Catecismo por Kacey Carey, DRE

¡A pesar de que Pedro fue elegido como el primer Papa y, posteriormente, Pablo, el apóstol de los gentiles, existían muchas diferencias entre ambos. Aunque distintos en trasfondo y experiencia, eran como dos hermanos unidos por el evangelio, del que ambos eran mensajeros, misioneros y depositarios. Históricamente, tuvieron un conflicto fraternal en el que Pablo discrepaba con Pedro. El conflicto giraba en torno a si las personas debían convertirse al judaísmo (y circuncidarse) antes de poder convertirse al cristianismo. Hoy celebramos las festividades de ambos juntos como un complemento. Pedro y Pablo son considerados fundadores de la Iglesia en Roma, tras haber sido martirizados por separado durante el reinado de Herodes. Pero Pedro respondió con acierto a la gran pregunta de Jesús: "¿Quién dicen que soy yo?". Pedro respondió: "Tú eres el Cristo, el Hijo de Dios vivo". Jesús entonces otorga un gran don, otorgando preeminencia a Pedro en respuesta. «Tú eres Pedro, y sobre esta roca edificaré mi Iglesia, y las puertas del infierno no prevalecerán contra ella. Te daré las llaves del Reino de los Cielos. Todo lo que ates en la tierra quedará atado en los cielos, y todo lo que desates en la tierra quedará desatado en los cielos». Este último don de Jesús permite el establecimiento de una Iglesia como signo firme para nuestros tiempos difíciles. La principal razón de vida de Cristo fue morir en la cruz por cada uno de nosotros, para que obtengamos nuestra herencia y nos elevemos para afrontar los numerosos desafíos y pruebas que enfrentamos.

«Como máxima autoridad pastoral y doctrinal, el Papa vela por la transmisión de la verdadera fe». {936-937 CIC}
