Pastor's Corner

From the Pastor, December 21, 2025

Our preparation for Christmas is coming to an end, this being the last Sunday before the celebration of that great feast day. Christmas, while it is not the time where the "Word was made flesh," as St. John poetically puts it in the Prologue of his Gospel (that is the Annunciation, celebrated on March 25 – 9 months ago), but it is the time when for the first time Jesus is manifested to us. He who is King of the Universe comes. And kings are expected to come in power and majesty. In the old days, they would be all dressed up in fine and resplendent clothes, riding on some huge horse probably, with a ton of supporters surrounding him.

This is not how our King comes. He comes not clothed in resplendent clothes but actually wearing nothing (awkward). He isn't riding a horse showing His power but in a supremely vulnerable position of lying in a manger, dependent upon His mother for basic necessities. He has no splendid retinue but is surrounded by shepherds.

What do we learn from this reality but that He has not come to conquer our world in the way we expect, but in a way we do not expect. He comes as a conqueror, truly as a warrior, but He fights for our hearts, not for submission. Out of the immense and burning love of His heart, He comes to win your allegiance through loving means. Our celebration of Christmas is our time to respond to this invitation of love.

In Christ,
Fr. Komo

Del Pastor, 21 de Diciembre de 2025

Nuestra preparación para la Navidad está llegando a su fin, siendo este el último domingo antes de la celebración de esa gran fiesta. La Navidad, si bien no es el momento en que el Verbo se hizo carne, como lo expresa poéticamente San Juan en el Prólogo de su Evangelio (es decir, la Anunciación, celebrada el 25 de marzo, hace 9 meses), sí es el momento en que Jesús se nos manifiesta por primera vez. Viene el Rey del Universo. Y se espera que los reyes vengan con poder y majestad. Antiguamente, iban vestidos con ropas finas y resplandecientes, probablemente montados en un caballo enorme, rodeados de un montón de seguidores.

Así no es como llega nuestro Rey. No viene vestido con ropas resplandecientes, sino desnudo (incómodo). No monta a caballo mostrando su poder, sino en una posición sumamente vulnerable, recostado en un pesebre, dependiendo de su madre para sus necesidades básicas. No tiene un séquito espléndido, sino que está rodeado de pastores.

¿Qué aprendemos de esta realidad sino que Él no ha venido a conquistar nuestro mundo como esperamos, sino de una manera inesperada? Viene como conquistador, como un verdadero guerrero, pero lucha por nuestros corazones, no por nuestra sumisión. Con el inmenso y ardiente amor de su corazón, Él viene a ganarse tu lealtad por medios amorosos. Nuestra celebración de Navidad es nuestro momento para responder a esta invitación de amor.

En Cristo,
P. Komo

Becoming Catholic

They “devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers.” – Acts 2:42

We are excited to hear about what the Lord is beginning or continuing to do in your life. The process of becoming Catholic is called OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults). It is designed to help us unpack the teaching of the Apostles so that we can burn with the same desire for Jesus as they did. Not sure where your journey fits into this, no worries. Reach out to our Director of Evangelization at nic@strosefamily.org. He would love to walk you through the process, and answer any questions you might have.

Are you Catholic already and have a friend that, through your witness, is open to becoming Catholic? Have them get in touch with Nic at nic@strosefamily.org.

Join us for our new Monthly Meal & Mingling at St. Charles! We'll gather on the second Saturday of each month following the 4:30 PM Mass in the Parish Hall.

All are welcome to come share a meal, enjoy good company, and strengthen our parish community. The menu will change each month, so there's always something new to look forward to! Bring your family, invite a friend, and stay after Mass for great food and fellowship.

St. Vincent de Paul

Christmas Basket Program 2025

We hope to provide Christmas food baskets for up to 1,200 families that are struggling to cover the costs essential to relieving the stressful holiday hunger issues suffered by our local poor. A $45.00 donation will provide a food box – plenty for one family Christmas dinner – although any size donation will be greatly appreciated. Like in past years, specific menu items can also be purchased for a larger donation. Contact St. Vincent de Paul for more details at 937-323-4277, or contact Casey Rollins. Donations can be mailed to: St. Vincent de Paul; PO Box 94; Springfield, Ohio 45501-0094.

Your support and generosity are truly appreciated!

St. John the Evangelist

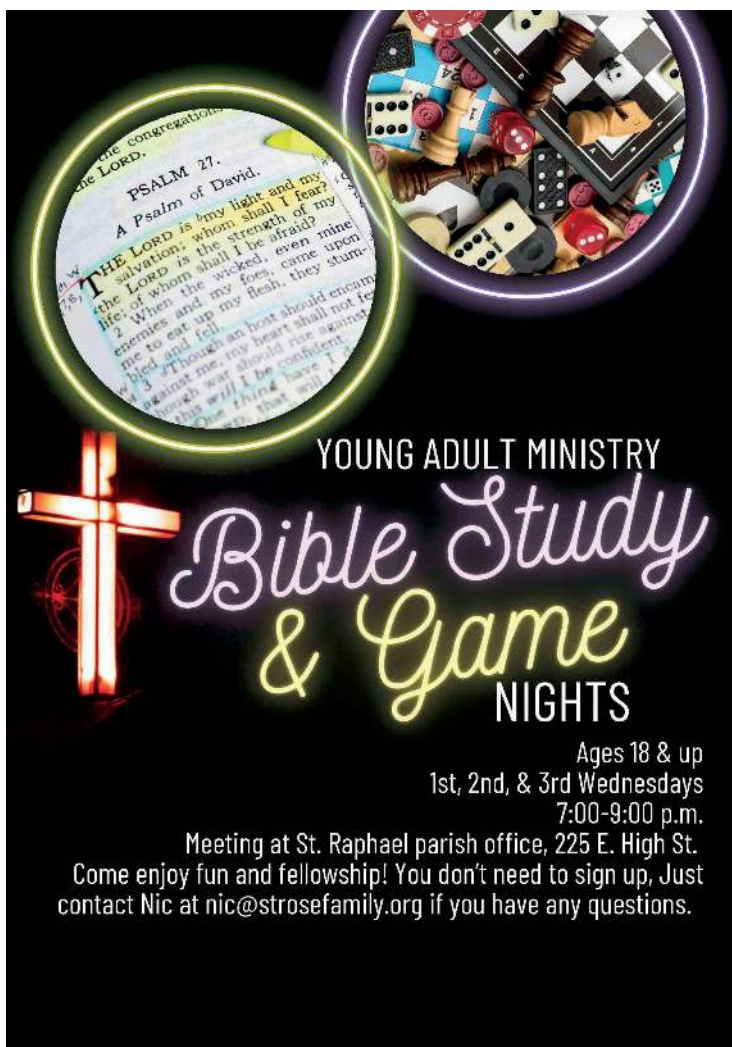

Saint of the Day: December 27

Patron Saint of Turkey

It is God who calls; human beings answer. The vocation of John and his brother James is stated very simply in the Gospels, along with that of Peter and his brother Andrew: Jesus called them; they followed. The absoluteness of their response is indicated by the account. James and John “were in a boat, with their father Zebedee, mending their nets. He called them, and immediately they left their boat and their father and followed him” (Matthew 4:21b-22).

For the three former fishermen – Peter, James and John – that faith was to be rewarded by a special friendship with Jesus. They alone were privileged to be present at the Transfiguration, the raising of the daughter of Jairus and the agony in Gethsemane. But John's friendship was even more special. Tradition assigns to him the Fourth Gospel, although most modern Scripture scholars think it unlikely that the apostle and the evangelist are the same person.

John's own Gospel refers to him as "the disciple whom Jesus loved" (see John 13:23; 19:26; 20:2), the one who reclined next to Jesus at the Last Supper, and the one to whom Jesus gave the exquisite honor of caring for his mother, as John stood beneath the cross. "Woman, behold your son.... Behold, your mother" (John 19:26b, 27b).
