Pastor's Corner

From the Pastor, January 11, 2026

Today's Feast of the Baptism of the Lord very intentionally points us to our own Baptism. If you have been baptized, you are a Christian. This does not mean that you have joined a club like the VFW but that you have been truly marked with a sign on your soul as being claimed for Jesus Christ. It seems, from a certain perspective, that Baptism, a simple ritual of washing with water, is kind of silly and not able to do what it promises... But then we encounter this Gospel, where Jesus submits to Baptism Himself in the Jordan River.

From the beginning, water was set apart to play a special role in salvation history, which we know to culminate in Baptism. As it says in the Blessing of Water from Easter: "O God, whose Spirit in the first moments of the world's creation hovered over the waters, so that the very substance of water even then take to itself the power to sanctify." But that is not the end – Jesus Himself enters into the water to sanctify it. As it continues in the Blessing of Water: "May this water receive by the Holy Spirit the grace of your Only Begotten Son, so that human nature, created in your image and washed clean through the Sacrament of Baptism from all the squalor of the life of old, may be found worthy to rise to the life of newborn children through water and the Holy Spirit." May the grace of our own Baptism be renewed within us on this holy feast.

In Christ,
Fr. Komo

Del Pastor, 11 de Enero de 2026

La fiesta del Bautismo del Señor de hoy nos recuerda, con toda intención, nuestro propio Bautismo. Si te has bautizado, eres cristiano. Esto no significa que te hayas unido a un club como la VFW, sino que has sido marcado con una señal en tu alma como un creyente declarado para Jesucristo. Desde cierta perspectiva, parece que el bautismo, un simple ritual de lavarse con agua, es algo absurdo e incapaz de cumplir lo que promete... Pero entonces encontramos este Evangelio, donde Jesús mismo se somete al bautismo en el río Jordán.

Desde el principio, el agua fue apartada para desempeñar un papel especial en la historia de la salvación, que sabemos que culmina en el bautismo. Como dice la Bendición del Agua de Pascua: "Oh Dios, cuyo Espíritu en los primeros momentos de la creación del mundo se cernía sobre las aguas, de modo que la misma sustancia de la tierra tomara para sí el poder de santificar". Pero ese no es el final: Jesús mismo entra en el agua para santificarla. Como continúa la Bendición del Agua: "Que esta agua reciba por el Espíritu Santo la gracia de tu Hijo Unigénito, para que la naturaleza humana, creada a tu imagen y purificada mediante el sacramento del Bautismo de toda la miseria de la vida anterior, sea hallada digna de resucitar a la vida de niños recién nacidos por el agua y el Espíritu Santo". Que la gracia de nuestro propio Bautismo se renueve en nosotros en esta santa fiesta.

En Cristo,
Padre Komo

Becoming Catholic

They “devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of the bread and to the prayers.”
– Acts 2:42

We are excited to hear about what the Lord is beginning or continuing to do in your life. The process of becoming Catholic is called OCIA (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults). It is designed to help us unpack the teaching of the Apostles so that we can burn with the same desire for Jesus as they did. Not sure where your journey fits into this? No worries. Reach out to our Director of Evangelization at nic@strosefamily.org. He would love to walk you through the process, and answer any questions you might have.

Are you Catholic already and have a friend that through your witness is open to becoming Catholic? Have them get in touch with Nic at nic@strosefamily.org.

Monthly Meal & Mingling

PSALM 27.
A Psalm of David.
THE LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear?
the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
2 When my wicked foes came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell.
3 Though an host should encamp against me, my heart should not fail.
4 I will be confident in the goodness of my God; though an host should rise against me, this will I be confident.
5 Though an host should rise against me, this will I be confident.

St. Anthony of Egypt

Saint of the Day: January 17

Patron Saint of Butchers,

Gravediggers, Skin Diseases

The life of Saint Anthony of Egypt will remind many people of Saint Francis of Assisi. At 20, Anthony was so moved by the Gospel message, "Go, sell what you have, and give to [the] poor" (Mark 10:21b), that he actually did just that with his large inheritance. He is different from Francis in that most of Anthony's life was spent in solitude.

He saw the world completely covered with snares, and gave the Church and the world the witness of solitary asceticism, great personal mortification and prayer. But no saint is antisocial, and Anthony drew many people to himself for spiritual healing and guidance.

At 54, Saint Anthony of Egypt responded to many requests and founded a sort of monastery of scattered cells. Again, like Francis, he had great fear of "stately buildings and well-laden tables."

At 60, he hoped to be a martyr in the renewed Roman persecution of 311, fearlessly exposing himself to danger while giving moral and material support to those in prison. At 88, he was fighting the Arian heresy, that massive trauma from which it took the Church centuries to recover. "The mule kicking over the altar" denied the divinity of Christ.

Anthony is associated in art with a T-shaped cross, a pig and a book. The pig and the cross are symbols of his valiant warfare with the devil—the cross his constant means of power over evil spirits, the pig a symbol of the devil himself. The book recalls his preference for "the book of nature" over the printed word. Anthony died in solitude at age 105.
