An Introduction from Our New Parochial Vicar, Fr. Blenman

I am blessed to be with and walk with all of you here at the St. Rose Family of Parishes. I have been ordained over 3 years now, having come from my previous assignment just south and east of here in Greene and Western Clark Counties. I was also the sports chaplain at Archbishop Carroll High School in Dayton. I am one of four kids, a twin brother, brother, and sister. My parents still live in Sidney, OH where I grew up and I graduated from Lehman Catholic High School. I enjoy hiking, watching movies, camping, and hanging out with friends. I am passionate about working with youth and helping others come/return to the faith, and my favorite devotions are to the Divine Mercy and Sacred Heart of Jesus.

I look forward to getting to know all of you and to walk together to where the Lord is calling us here in this family. I am always down for a good meal so do not hesitate to invite me to meals or to get coffee or whatever kind of drink you prefer! Please know of my daily prayers for all of you and please keep Fr. Hale and me in yours.

In Christ,
Fr. Blenman

Presentación de nuestro nuevo vicario parroquial, el P. Blenman

Me siento bendecido de estar y caminar junto a todos ustedes aquí, en la Familia de Parroquias de Santa Rosa. Fui ordenado hace más de tres años y vengo de mi anterior destino pastoral, situado al sureste de aquí, entre los condados de Greene y Clark (zona oeste). También fui capellán deportivo en la escuela secundaria Archbishop Carroll, en Dayton. Soy uno de cuatro hermanos: tengo un hermano gemelo, otro hermano y una hermana. Mis padres aún viven en Sidney, Ohio – donde crecí y me gradué de la escuela secundaria Lehman Catholic –, y yo disfruto del senderismo, ver películas, acampar y pasar tiempo con amigos. Me apasiona trabajar con los jóvenes y ayudar a los demás a acercarse o regresar a la fe; mis devociones favoritas son a la Divina Misericordia y al Sagrado Corazón de Jesús.

Espero con ilusión conocerlos a todos y caminar juntos hacia donde el Señor nos llama en esta familia. Siempre estoy dispuesto a disfrutar de una buena comida, así que no duden en invitarme a comer, a tomar un café o cualquier otra bebida que prefieran. Sepan que rezo a diario por todos ustedes y, por favor, ténganme presente a mí y al P. Hale en sus oraciones.

En Cristo,
Fr. Blenman

Saint Lawrence of Brindisi

Saint of the Day: July 21

Patron Saint of Brewers and Cooks

Saint Lawrence of Brindisi was born on July 22, 1559, and died exactly 60 years later on his birthday in 1619. After the early death of his parents, he was educated by his uncle at the College of St. Mark in Venice.

When he was just 16, he entered the Capuchin Franciscan Order in Venice and received the name of Lawrence of Brindisi. He completed his studies of philosophy and theology at the University of Padua and was ordained a priest at 23.

With his facility for languages, Lawrence of Brindisi was able to study the Bible in its original texts. At the request of Pope Clement VIII, he spent much time preaching to the Jews in Italy. So excellent was his knowledge of Hebrew, the rabbis felt sure he was a Jew who had become a Christian.

Lawrence's sensitivity to the needs of people began to surface. He was elected major superior of the Capuchin Franciscan province of Tuscany at the age of 31. He had the combination of brilliance, human compassion, and administrative skill. In rapid succession he was promoted by his fellow Capuchins and was elected minister general of the Capuchins in 1602. In this position he was responsible for great growth and geographical expansion of the Order.

Lawrence of Brindisi was appointed papal emissary and peacemaker, a job which took him to a number of foreign countries. An effort to achieve peace in his native kingdom of Naples took him on a journey to Lisbon to visit the king of Spain. Serious illness in Lisbon took his life in 1619.

In 1956, the Capuchins completed a 15-volume edition of Lawrence's writings. Eleven of these 15 contain his sermons, each of which relies chiefly on scriptural quotations to illustrate his teaching.

Saint Lawrence of Brindisi

Saint of the Day: July 21

Patron Saint of Brewers and Cooks

Saint Lawrence of Brindisi was born on July 22, 1559, and died exactly 60 years later on his birthday in 1619. After the early death of his parents, he was educated by his uncle at the College of St. Mark in Venice.

When he was just 16, he entered the Capuchin Franciscan Order in Venice and received the name of Lawrence of Brindisi. He completed his studies of philosophy and theology at the University of Padua and was ordained a priest at 23.

With his facility for languages, Lawrence of Brindisi was able to study the Bible in its original texts. At the request of Pope Clement VIII, he spent much time preaching to the Jews in Italy. So excellent was his knowledge of Hebrew, the rabbis felt sure he was a Jew who had become a Christian.

Lawrence's sensitivity to the needs of people began to surface. He was elected major superior of the Capuchin Franciscan province of Tuscany at the age of 31. He had the combination of brilliance, human compassion, and administrative skill. In rapid succession he was promoted by his fellow Capuchins and was elected minister general of the Capuchins in 1602. In this position he was responsible for great growth and geographical expansion of the Order.

Lawrence of Brindisi was appointed papal emissary and peacemaker, a job which took him to a number of foreign countries. An effort to achieve peace in his native kingdom of Naples took him on a journey to Lisbon to visit the king of Spain. Serious illness in Lisbon took his life in 1619.

In 1956, the Capuchins completed a 15-volume edition of Lawrence's writings. Eleven of these 15 contain his sermons, each of which relies chiefly on scriptural quotations to illustrate his teaching.
