A Message About Fr. Larry

After many years assisting us here, Fr. Larry has moved to St. Charles Center in Carthage, OH. The facility is a former seminary for the Precious Blood Order. It now serves retired priests. Fr. Larry can celebrate Mass with brother priests each morning in the beautiful chapel. Fr. Larry toured the grounds with Mary Caputo and Fr. John MacQuarrie and was pleased with the grounds. Fr. Larry's decision for St. Charles is an excellent choice for him. We thank Fr. Larry for his years of service here and the impact he has had on our parish family.

We meet the Second Thursday every other month after 12:10 p.m. Mass at Saint Raphael to drop off completed rosaries and pick up more supplies. Our next meeting will be August 13 in Hoban Hall. Everyone is welcome! Instructions and supplies are available. You can make rosaries at home at your own convenience. It's a wonderful activity for families, children and grandchildren.

For more information, please call Karen Lotz at 937-390-1724.

Salmo 85:11-12

Saint Lawrence

Saint of the Day: August 10

Patron Saint of Cooks, Deacons and the Poor

Lawrence was a Roman deacon under Pope Saint Sixtus II. Four days after this pope was put to death, Lawrence and four clerics suffered martyrdom, probably during the persecution of the Emperor Valerian.

As deacon in Rome, Saint Lawrence was charged with the responsibility for the material goods of the Church, and the distribution of alms to the poor. When Lawrence knew he would be arrested like the pope, he sought out the poor, widows, and orphans of Rome and gave them all the money he had on hand, selling even the sacred vessels of the altar to increase the sum. When the prefect of Rome heard of this, he imagined that the Christians must have considerable treasure.

He sent for Saint Lawrence and said, "You Christians say we are cruel to you, but that is not what I have in mind. I am told that your priests offer in gold, that the sacred blood is received in silver cups, that you have golden candlesticks at your evening services. Now, your doctrine says you must render to Caesar what is his. Bring these treasures—the emperor needs them to maintain his forces."

Saint Lawrence replied that the Church was indeed rich. "I will show you a valuable part. But give me time to set everything in order and make an inventory." After three days he gathered a great number of blind, lame, maimed, leprous, orphaned, and widowed persons and put them in rows. When the prefect arrived, Lawrence simply said, "These are the treasure of the Church."

The prefect was so angry he told Lawrence that he would indeed have his wish to die—but it would be by inches. He had a great gridiron prepared with coals beneath it, and had Lawrence's body placed on it. After the martyr had suffered the pain for a long time, the legend concludes, he made his famous cheerful remark, "It is well done. Turn me over!"

Saint Dominic

Saint of the Day: August 8

Patron Saint of Astronomers and the Dominican Republic

Born in old Castile, Spain, Saint Dominic was trained for the priesthood by a priest-uncle, studied the arts and theology, and became a canon of the cathedral at Osma, where there was an attempt to revive the apostolic common life described in Acts of the Apostles.

On a journey through France with his bishop, Dominic came face to face with the then virulent Albigensian heresy at Languedoc. The Albigensians held to two principles – one good, one evil – in the world. All matter is evil – hence they denied the Incarnation and the sacraments. On the same principle, they abstained from procreation and took a minimum of food and drink. The inner circle led what some people regarded as a heroic life of purity and asceticism.

Saint Dominic sensed the need for the Church to combat this heresy, and was commissioned to be part of the preaching crusade against it. He saw immediately why the preaching crusade was not succeeding: the ordinary people admired and followed the ascetical heroes of the Albigenses. Understandably, they were not impressed by the Catholic preachers who traveled with horse and retinues, stayed at the best inns and had servants. Saint Dominic therefore, with three Cistercians, began itinerant preaching according to the Gospel ideal. He continued this work for 10 years, being successful with the ordinary people but not with the leaders.

His fellow preachers gradually became a community, and in 1215 Dominic founded a religious house at Toulouse, the beginning of the Order of Preachers or Dominicans.

Dominic's ideal, and that of his Order, was to organically link a life with God, study, and prayer in all forms, with a ministry of salvation to people by the Word of God. His ideal: contemplata tradere: "to pass on the fruits of contemplation" or "to speak only of God or with God."
