

Are you envious because I am generous?'

Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last.

¿Tienes envidia porque soy generoso?

Así, los últimos serán los primeros, y los primeros serán los últimos.

From the Pastor

The Sacred Gift of Silence

"Be still, and know that I am God."

— Psalm 46:10

In our busy world, silence can be difficult to find. We are surrounded by conversations, music, notifications, and constant activity.

Yet when we come to Mass, we enter into something different. We come into the presence of God.

For this reason, silence before and after Mass is an important part of preparing our hearts for the Sacred Liturgy and giving thanks afterward.

Silence Before Mass: Preparing the Heart

When we enter the church, we are entering a sacred space and coming before Jesus Christ, truly present in the Eucharist.

A few moments of quiet before Mass allow us to step away from the distractions of the week and turn our hearts toward God. Rather than immediately beginning conversations with those around us, we can use this time to pray:

"Lord, I am here. Help me to worship You. Open my heart to Your Word and prepare me to receive You in the Eucharist."

This does not mean that we should be unfriendly or avoid welcoming others. There are certainly appropriate times for greeting one another. But once we enter the church and prepare for Mass, our priority should be prayerful recollection.

Our silence is also a charity toward our fellow parishioners. Someone may have come to Mass carrying a heavy burden, seeking consolation, or simply needing a few quiet moments with the Lord. By maintaining a prayerful atmosphere, we help one another prepare to encounter Christ.

Silence After Mass: Giving Thanks

Our need for silence does not end when the final hymn concludes. After receiving Holy Communion, we are given a precious opportunity for intimate prayer with Jesus. Even after the dismissal, we should remain for a few moments to give thanks.

The Mass is not simply something we "finish" and immediately leave behind. Having encountered Christ in the Eucharist, we should allow ourselves time to remain with Him in prayer.

Before leaving the church, we might simply pray:

"Jesus, thank You for coming to me. Thank You for the gift of Your Body and Blood. Help me to carry Your presence with me as I go into the world."

A Parish Culture of Prayer

Creating a culture of silence before and after Mass is not about being rigid or unfriendly. It is about recognizing what is taking place at the altar and giving God the reverence He deserves.

Our churches should be places where people know they can come to pray. A quiet church communicates something beautiful: Christ is here, and we have come to be with Him.

As a parish family, let us make a renewed effort to embrace sacred silence. Let us arrive a little earlier, quiet our conversations, turn our hearts toward the tabernacle, and prepare ourselves for the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. After Mass, let us resist the temptation to rush immediately into conversation and instead spend a few moments in thanksgiving.

The world gives us plenty of noise. The Church gives us a place to be still.

May our silence before and after Mass help us hear the voice of God, recognize the presence of Christ, and enter more deeply into the mystery of the Holy Eucharist, so that we can be the saints you are being called to be!

El sagrado don del silencio

“Estad quietos, y sabed que yo soy Dios.”

– Salmo 46:10

En nuestro ajetreado mundo, encontrar silencio puede ser difícil. Estamos rodeados de conversaciones, música, notificaciones y actividad constante. Sin embargo, cuando asistimos a misa, entramos en algo diferente. Entramos en la presencia de Dios.

Por esta razón, el silencio antes y después de la Misa es una parte importante de la preparación de nuestros corazones para la Sagrada Liturgia y de la acción de gracias posterior.

Silencio antes de la Misa: Preparando el corazón

Cuando entramos en la iglesia, entramos en un espacio sagrado y nos presentamos ante Jesucristo, verdaderamente presente en la Eucaristía.

Unos instantes de silencio antes de la Misa nos permiten alejarnos de las distracciones de la semana y dirigir nuestros corazones hacia Dios. En lugar de entablar conversaciones con quienes nos rodean, podemos aprovechar este tiempo para orar:

«Señor, aquí estoy. Ayúdame a adorarte. Abre mi corazón a tu Palabra y prepárame para recibirte en la Eucaristía.»

Esto no significa que debemos ser antipáticos o evitar dar la bienvenida a los demás. Ciertamente hay momentos apropiados para saludarnos. Pero una vez que entramos en la iglesia y nos preparamos para la Misa, Nuestra prioridad debe ser el recuerdo en oración.

Nuestro silencio es también un gesto de caridad hacia nuestros hermanos feligreses. Alguien puede haber venido a misa cargando con una pesada carga, buscando consuelo o simplemente necesitando unos momentos de tranquilidad con el Señor. Al mantener un ambiente de oración, nos ayudamos mutuamente a prepararnos para el encuentro con Cristo.

Silencio después de la misa: Dar gracias

Nuestra necesidad de silencio no termina cuando concluye el himno final.

Tras recibir la Sagrada Comunión, se nos brinda una valiosa oportunidad para la oración íntima con Jesús. Incluso después de la despedida, debemos permanecer unos instantes para dar gracias.

La Misa no es algo que simplemente “terminamos” y dejamos atrás de inmediato. Tras haber encontrado a Cristo en la Eucaristía, debemos darnos tiempo para permanecer con Él en oración.

Antes de salir de la iglesia, podríamos simplemente orar:

“Jesús, gracias por venir a mí. Gracias por el don de tu Cuerpo y tu Sangre. Ayúdame a llevar tu presencia conmigo al salir al mundo.”

Una cultura parroquial de oración

Crear una cultura de silencio antes y después de la misa no significa ser rígido o antipático. Se trata de reconocer lo que sucede en el altar y rendir a Dios la reverencia que se merece.

Nuestras iglesias deberían ser lugares donde la gente sepa que puede venir a orar. Una iglesia silenciosa comunica algo hermoso: Cristo está aquí, y hemos venido a estar con Él.

Como comunidad parroquial, hagamos un esfuerzo renovado por cultivar el silencio sagrado. Lleguemos un poco antes, aquietemos nuestras conversaciones, dirijamos nuestros corazones al sagrario y preparémonos para el Santo Sacrificio de la Misa. Después de la Misa, resistamos la tentación de entablar una conversación de inmediato y, en cambio, dediquemos unos momentos a dar gracias.

El mundo nos ofrece mucho ruido. La Iglesia nos ofrece un lugar para estar en calma.

Que nuestro silencio antes y después de la Misa nos ayude a escuchar la voz de Dios, a reconocer la presencia de Cristo y a profundizar en el misterio de la Sagrada Eucaristía, para que podamos ser los santos que ustedes están llamados a ser.

Como parte del Sínodo 2027, el arzobispo Casey nos invita a cada uno de nosotros a participar en una sesión de escucha de «Conversaciones en el Espíritu». Los participantes se unirán a otras personas de toda la arquidiócesis para reflexionar en oración sobre lo que el Espíritu Santo pide a nuestra Iglesia en este momento, ayudando así al arzobispo Casey a establecer las prioridades pastorales para el futuro. Hay aproximadamente 60 sesiones programadas entre el Día del Trabajo (Labor Day) y el Día de Acción de Gracias (Thanksgiving). Inscríbese hoy mismo en <https://catholicaoc.org/conversations>.

Bendiciones en una Botella

Una vez más, la familia de St. Rose respondió generosamente en apoyo a la campaña de recaudación de fondos "Bendiciones en una Botella" ("Blessings in a Bottle") de la Pregnancy Resource Clinic. La contribución conjunta de nuestra familia parroquial este año fue de $5,587.67!!!! Esto representa casi $2,000.00 más que el año anterior. Gracias a todos los que contribuyeron.

San Juan Enrique Newman

Santo del día: 24 de septiembre

Patrono de los educadores, los maestros y los inmigrantes

Nacido en Londres, Inglaterra, San Juan Enrique Newman estudió en el Trinity College de Oxford, fue tutor en el Oriel College y, durante 17 años, fue vicario de la iglesia universitaria, Santa María la Virgen. Con el tiempo, publicó ocho volúmenes de Sermones parroquiales y sencillos, así como dos novelas.

A partir de 1833, Newman fue un miembro destacado del Movimiento de Oxford, que enfatizaba la deuda de la Iglesia con los Padres de la Iglesia y cuestionaba cualquier tendencia a considerar la verdad como algo completamente subjetivo.

La investigación histórica llevó a Newman a sospechar que la Iglesia Católica Romana era la que mantenía una continuidad más estrecha con la Iglesia que Jesús estableció. En 1845, fue recibido en plena comunión como católico. Dos años más tarde fue ordenado sacerdote católico en Roma y se unió a la Congregación del Oratorio. Al regresar a Inglaterra, Newman fundó casas del Oratorio en Birmingham y Londres, y durante siete años se desempeñó como rector de la Universidad Católica de Irlanda.

Newman llegó a escribir 40 libros y 21 000 cartas que se conservan hasta hoy. Cuando San Juan Enrique Newman fue nombrado cardenal en 1879, adoptó como lema "Cor ad cor loquitur" – "El corazón habla al corazón." Fue enterrado en Rednal 11 años después. Tras la exhumación de su tumba en 2008, se preparó una nueva sepultura en la iglesia del Oratorio de Birmingham.

En 2010, el papa Benedicto XVI beatificó a Newman en Londres. Benedicto destacó el énfasis que Newman ponía en el lugar vital que ocupa la religión revelada en la sociedad civilizada, pero también elogió su celo pastoral por los enfermos, los pobres, los afligidos y los presos. El papa Francisco canonizó a Newman en octubre de 2019. La fiesta litúrgica de San Juan Enrique Newman se celebra el 9 de octubre.

Saint John Henry Newman

Saint of the Day: September 24

Patron Saint of Educators, Teachers and Immigrants

Born in London, England, Saint John Henry Newman studied at Oxford's Trinity College, was a tutor at Oriel College, and for 17 years was vicar of the university church, St. Mary the Virgin. He eventually published eight volumes of Parochial and Plain Sermons as well as two novels.

After 1833, Newman was a prominent member of the Oxford Movement, which emphasized the Church's debt to the Church Fathers and challenged any tendency to consider truth as completely subjective.

Historical research made Newman suspect that the Roman Catholic Church was in closest continuity with the Church that Jesus established. In 1845, he was received into full communion as a Catholic. Two years later, he was ordained a Catholic priest in Rome and joined the Congregation of the Oratory. Returning to England, Newman founded Oratory houses in Birmingham and London and for seven years served as rector of the Catholic University of Ireland.

Newman eventually wrote 40 books and 21,000 letters that survive. When Saint John Henry Newman was named a cardinal in 1879, he took as his motto "Cor ad cor loquitur"—"Heart speaks to heart." He was buried in Rednal 11 years later. After his grave was exhumed in 2008, a new tomb was prepared at the Oratory church in Birmingham.

In 2010, Pope Benedict XVI beatified Newman in London. Benedict noted Newman's emphasis on the vital place of revealed religion in civilized society, but also praised his pastoral zeal for the sick, the poor, the bereaved, and those in prison. Pope Francis canonized Newman in October 2019. Saint John Henry Newman's liturgical feast is celebrated on October 9.
