REQUESTS FOR ADMISSION

1. Admit that Defendants owned the subject property located at 1713 Francis Ave, Des Moines, Iowa, 50314, during the Plaintiff's tenancy at said property.

RESPONSE:

2. Admit that Defendants leased the subject property to Plaintiff during her tenancy at said property.

RESPONSE:

3. Admit that Defendants had insurance on the subject property at the time of Plaintiff's tenancy.

RESPONSE:

4. Admit that Defendants have continued to own the subject property since the Plaintiff vacated the property and currently own the subject property.

RESPONSE:

5. Admit that Plaintiff submitted maintenance requests during her tenancy at the subject property.

RESPONSE:

6. Admit that Plaintiff informed you she sought medical treatment while residing at the subject property.

RESPONSE:

7. Admit that exposure to mold and other indoor contaminants can cause health problems.

RESPONSE:

8. Admit that Plaintiff reported issues relating to leaks, water intrusion, water damage, mold, fungi, malfunction of the sump pump, cracks in the walls or floor, roofing issues, or other structural problems during her tenancy at the subject property.

RESPONSE:

9. Admit that Plaintiff told Defendants that she had health problems that were caused by the conditions inside the subject property.

RESPONSE:

10. Admit that the peer-reviewed scientific literature confirms that health problems can be caused by mold and other indoor contaminants in homes with conditions similar to those found in the subject property (including, but not limited to, water damage and mold).

RESPONSE:

11. Admit that Defendants breached an alleged duty to address visible code violations during their ownership of the subject property.

RESPONSE:

12. Admit that Defendants failed to notice or correct building code violations while inspecting, evaluating, and repairing the subject property.

RESPONSE:

13. Admit that Defendants leased the subject property to Plaintiff when they knew the subject property had structural defects.

RESPONSE:

14. Admit that Defendants contacted and paid for Green Home Solutions to inspect, assess, and evaluate the subject property, and provide a report with their findings, after the Plaintiff reported health effects relating to or caused by the conditions inside the subject property.

RESPONSE:

15. Admit that Defendants had the Plaintiff or members of Plaintiff's family under observation or surveillance at any time during the past year.

RESPONSE:

16. Admit that the subject property had (or has) a history of excess moisture and humidity.

RESPONSE:

17. Admit the subject property had leaks, water intrusion, improper drainage, water damage, flooding, mold growth, fungi, sewage backing up into the basement (including malfunction, non-function or backup of the sump pump), bacterial contamination, cracks in the walls on the main floor, cracks or bowing in the basement floor or walls, broken pipes, roofing problems or other structural problems, during the time it was occupied by Plaintiff or prior to her occupancy.

RESPONSE:

18. Admit that Plaintiff specifically requested to be referred to a different rental property that was safe and habitable and did not have the same unsafe conditions as the subject property (i.e., leaks, water damage, mold and structural problems, etc.) when Plaintiff gave notice to terminate her lease at the subject property.

RESPONSE:

19. Admit that Defendants referred Plaintiff to another rental property with known defects and unsafe conditions when Plaintiff asked to terminate her lease at the subject property.

RESPONSE:

20. Admit that Defendants own and lease other rental properties with unsafe conditions or code violations.

RESPONSE:

21. Admit that Defendants own and lease other rental properties where tenants have filed complaints or litigation regarding the conditions in those properties.

RESPONSE:

22. Admit that Defendants made repairs to the subject property after it was vacated by Plaintiff to bring it into compliance with housing and building codes.

RESPONSE:

23. Admit that Defendants leased the subject property to another tenant after it was vacated by Plaintiff.
